One Boy Is Improving, Other Blast Victim Is Still Critical Today

One of the two 12-year-old boys injured in an explosion of dynamite caps at Wiltwyck Cemetery Wednesday shows some improvement at Kingston Hospital, it was reported today, but the condition of the other is still critical.

Douglas Dittus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth J. Dittus, of 68 Liberty Street, it was noted this morning, is in fair condition. It was also reported that the

Dairymen Forsee Possible Cuts in Price Supports

ROCHESTER (AP)—The Dairymen's League Cooperative Assn. has urged its directors to guard against what it calls the possibility of a drastic reduction in federal supports for milk prices.

The league said yesterday in a resolution that there "was strong feeling through the industry" that Secretary of Agriculture Benson may lower minimum milk prices or ask Congress to do away with minimums.

It urged the directors to do everything possible "to prevent any such action" by the government.

The resolution was apparently prompted by a speech Benson gave here yesterday at a session of the league's 38th annual convention. Benson warned that artificially high prices could damage the long-run market for dairy products.

His speech was not mentioned in the resolution, which stated that many dairymen believe Benson might lower the dairy support level to 75 per cent of parity—the lowest point under present law.

Dairy products are now supported at about 84 per cent of parity. The resolution also declared

New Phone Increases May Begin Within Short Time

ALBANY (AP)—New York Telephone Co. experts raced against time today to prepare new schedules embodying increases in monthly rates of up to 35 cents on home phones and $1 on business phones.

The Public Service Commission yesterday authorized the company to increase its rates by 33 million dollars a year. It gave the company permission to distribute the increase without restriction except for the limit on the raise for home and business phones.

The increase may be put into effect one day after the commission has approved the new tariff, which the company first must file. A battery of company rate makers in New York City worked far into last night on the proposal.

"A company spokesman said the schedules would be ready to be submitted to the commission within a few days.

The PSC granted about 60 per cent of the company's request for an increase of 55½ million dollars a year. The commission said its decision "climaxes the most bitterly contested rate proceeding in the history of utility regulation in New York State."

Bills designed to make it harder for the company to get an increase provoked sharp political controversy in the Legislature last winter and again at a special session in June.

Democratic Gov. Harriman, Republican Assembly Speaker Oswald D. Heck and the bipartisan PSC supported legislation that shock and strain on the parents resulted in hospitalization of both.

Mother Hysterical
Mrs. Dittus was admitted at Kingston Hospital this morning for treatment of mental exhaustion and hysteria, and her husband was treated for the effects of strain and fatigue which came as a reaction to the mishap.

Still in critical condition today was Robert East, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert East of 37 Furnace Street. He suffered severe injuries on the right side of the body, back, right leg and arm.

Might Affect Eye
The Dittus boy suffered injuries of the hands with loss of finger tips on the right hand, burns and injuries of the face. It was also indicated yesterday that sight in the right eye might be affected.

It was definitely established today that the blasting caps, which reports indicated, were set off when a match or matches, was dropped in a box containing them, were not those which were reported stolen a few weeks ago from the county quarry magazine.

The type reported stolen from the quarry magazine were "electrical exploders," while those involved in Wednesday's explosion were fuse caps.

Probe Continues
Investigation was still in progress today to determine where the caps came from originally, and how the boys came upon them. It was reported yesterday that they had found them while walking along the railroad tracks and brought them to the cemetery.

Pieces of the box which contained the caps were taken to police headquarters and now figure in the investigation. The box bore the trade name of Hercules.

Authorities, meanwhile, emphasized their previous warnings that the fuse type of dynamite caps are dangerous in the hands of children, and they ask cooperation of all parents and children to report the finding of

Saugerties School Staffs Will Receive Flu Vaccine

Asiatic flu vaccine will be administered to all members of the faculty, cafeteria and maintenance staffs of Saugerties Central Schools according to arrangements announced at the Saugerties board of education meeting this week at the Main Street School.

Dr. Richard B. Wenger, school physician will administer the vaccine to all those members who elect to be inoculated as soon as supplies arrive.

Insurance coverage on representatives of the school system participating in inter-school sports under the New York

State High School Athletic Protection Plan, Inc. was expanded to cover the athletes under the double indemnity plan, which makes a more liberal allowance in the event of accidents.

By a unanimous vote of the board, plans were made to improve the paving and sidewalks at the Glasco school to an amount of $13,000. It was also voted to spend $2,000 improving the roof of the Glasco School and the auditorium.

Because the increased enrollment in the high school has swollen the size of the classes in some subjects the board approved the plan to add a new classroom building to the high school campus.

U. S. Reds Trade Warnings Over Mid-East Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and Russia confronted each other menacingly over the Middle East today, with each power warning the other against plunging the area into war.

Soviet Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev touched off the situation with comments regarded by the U. S. government as directly threatening Turkey. His statement, made in a New York Times interview, was published yesterday.

The United States struck back last night with a State Department declaration that this country intends to stand by its obligations to Turkey under the North Atlantic Treaty and is also "determined to carry out" its expressed policy of defending the Middle East against international communism.

Clearly warning that a clash in the Middle East might spread to engulf much of the world, the U.S. statement asserted:

"Mr. Khrushchev is himself reported to have observed that it is dangerous in these times to assume that hostilities, once begun, will remain confined to a particular locality. That truth should be prayerfully and constantly contemplated by every responsible official of every country."

The American statement is understood to have been cleared with President Eisenhower and to have been checked with some of the other members of the 15-nation North Atlantic Alliance. The eight-year-old treaty provides that an armed attack against a member nation "shall be considered an attack against all" member nations.

Exactly how serious the situation is was not entirely clear here. Much appeared to depend on the outcome of events in the Middle East itself, particularly developments along the tense border between Turkey and Syria.

If some kind of border incident involving Turkey and Syria should get out of hand, the situation could rapidly become worse.

Much also obviously depends on Russia's real intentions with respect to the Turkish-Syrian tension. One major consideration, perhaps the dominant one, in the top-level decision to issue last night's Washington declaration was that United States intentions should be made clear to the Soviet government in order to minimize the danger of a miscalculation there.

In the interview, Khrushchev accused Secretary of State Dulles of trying to push Turkey to attack Syria. He charged that Dulles had sent Deputy Under Secretary of State Roy Henderson to the Middle East in late summer to incite Jordan and Iraq against Syria after Syria had come under the control of pro-Soviet army officers.

When Henderson did not succeed in moving Jordan and Iraq to act, Khrushchev alleged, he put pressure on Turkey to do so.

Khrushchev was quoted as saying that "if war breaks out, we are near Turkey and you are not. When the guns begin to fire, the rockets can begin flying and then it will be too late to think about it. . . . Turkey would not last one day in case of war."

Court Orders Test On Leyden Sanity

DELHI (AP)—George Leyden, 27, indicted on a charge of first-degree murder in the stabbing of his wife, will undergo a sanity test.

Justice Joseph P. Molinari of State Supreme Court yesterday ordered Leyden examined at Binghamton State Hospital. Molinari acted on a motion by Dist. Atty. Gleason B. Speenburgh after a Delaware County grand jury had returned the indictment.

Leyden, a grocery clerk, was charged with killing Mrs. Charlotte Leyden with a hunting knife in their Margaretville home last July 28.

Police said the motive apparently was jealousy.

Speenburgh said he made the motion to settle the question of sanity before trial, and not because he had any settled belief on the matter.

A mandatory plea of innocent was entered.

Sales, Income Are Reported Up by Watson for IBM

Thomas J. Watson Jr., president of International Business Machines Corporation, reported Thursday that for the nine months ended September 30, 1957 net income was $62,385,591 after estimated federal income taxes. This is equivalent for the nine months period to $5.40 a share on the 11,552,460 shares outstanding after the 100 per cent stock split effected May 7, 1957 and the 1,050,223 shares of additional stock sold through the rights offering which ended June 10, 1957.

The net income after taxes for the corresponding 1956 period was $49,234,012 equal to $4.69 a share on 10,502,237 shares. The number of shares outstanding September 30, 1956 adjusted for the 100 per cent stock split of May 7, 1957.

Net income for the nine months ended September 30, 1957 before federal income taxes amounted to $130,208,391 compared with $105,269,912 in the corresponding 1956 period.

Gross income for the nine months ended September 30, 1957 from sales, service and rentals in the United States amounted to $704,407,035 compared with $513,174,142 in the corresponding 1956 period.

During 1956 the corporation changed its method of computing depreciation for rental machines produced since January 1, 1956 from the straight line to the sum of the years digits methods. This change resulted in a reduction of the net income after taxes amounting to $7,901,414 for the nine months ended September 30, 1957 and $2,563,198 for the nine months ended September 30, 1956.

For the nine months ended September 30, 1957 the reported net income after taxes includes $3,458,009 derived from the outright sale to customers of punched card accounting and data processing machines previously under lease to them.

County Officers Assn. Director Endorses Administrator System

Recent action of the Ulster County Board of Supervisors in recommending the County Administrator form of county government, was commended last evening by C. L. Chamberlain, executive director of the County Officers' Association of the State of New York.

Speaking before the board of supervisors, Chamberlain said this was a "step in the right direction" and would bring the county system of government up to date. He said approval of the plan by the voters in a referendum on election day would "gear county government to meet the demands of the future."

Advices Tax Map

Chamberlain also recommended that the county consider preparation of a "tax map" which would list all property in the county under a key number, making it possible to have every parcel of land in the county on the tax rolls.

A tax map prepared in his own County of Broome some years ago had resulted in much property formerly skipped by the local assessors being placed on the tax roll and he said over the years the cost of the tax map was recovered many times over.

Flu Hitting Different Areas Hard

Cases Are Above Million in U. S.

By The Associated Press
Flu, like a broken-field runner, zigzagged across the United States today, trampling hard over some communities, dodging others, but generally dealing stiff blows to the American populace.

Whether it was mostly Asian flu, or combined with other varieties, was uncertain. But either way, a rampage of coughs, aches, fevers and sniffles was on. Vaccine defenses were termed by some too late or too little.

5 States Hard Hit

The U. S. Public Health Service said estimates of Asian flu cases alone had passed the million mark, with heaviest occurrence in Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Arizona and New York City.

An Associated Press survey showed most other states also have been seriously hit at some points. Persons stricken usually recover in a few days, but at least 15 deaths this month have been attributed to flu complications.

Many public schools were closed. Dances and social affairs were called off.

Athletic schedules crumbled. Football games were postponed or cancelled by scores of high schools and some colleges. Of a 26-man McClester, Okla., high school team, 23 were out with flu.

At many educational institutions, infirmaries were crowded or overflowing. A former men's dormitory at Stanford University in California was converted into a temporary convalescent ward.

Restrict Visitors

The infection also struck in factories and industries—even prisons. In the state reformatory for males at Hagerstown, Md., 126 prisoners—more than a tenth of the inmates—were down with flu. Visitors were barred.

Some hospitals also restricted visiting. Others refused to admit Asian flu cases, due to its highly contagious nature. Doctors and nurses worked overtime.

The influenza sweep seemed to follow no definite geographical pattern, striking hard at some cities with others nearby scarcely hit, then jumping full force to distant areas.

The Public Health Service reported localized epidemics in areas of Utah, Wyoming, California, Texas, South Carolina and Florida with sporadic occurrences in New Mexico, Oklahoma, Mississippi and Louisiana.

County Buying 2,000 Flu Shots for Key Personnel

Ulster County Board of Supervisors Thursday evening appropriated $650 for the purchase of 2,000 shots of Asian flu vaccine which will be made available by the county health department to key personnel of the county.

Under the law counties and cities over 50,000 population may purchase the vaccine for a vaccination program and receive reimbursement from the state in the amount of 50 per cent of the cost.

On recommendation of Dr. Dudley W. Hargrave, county commissioner of health, the board unanimously voted to put the program in force.

Preference will be given to physicians, nurses and hospital personnel who are concerned with the care of sick and the maintenance of health. Next will come firemen, policemen, jail guards followed by staffs of water plants and sewage treatment plants and others in the order of their importance to public health as outlined by the State Health Department.

The County Health Department will organize and staff flu clinics to carry out the program.

Specifications for a two-way radio communications system for volunteer fire companies of the county, outside the city of Kingston, were presented to the board of supervisors Thursday evening and the county is now ready to submit the plan for bid.

Edward R. Eckert, (R), Esopus, chairman of the committee which has been studying the advisability of a two-way radio system for some time, reported specifications had been received from Otto Friske, Dutchess County Fire Coordinator who had been commissioned to draw up plans and specifications.

Eckert told the board the plan approved was for the county, exclusive of the city of Kingston which has its own system. The county is now in position to advertise for bids for the installation.

Salary Increase Voted

By unanimous vote the board increased the salary of the county clerk from $6,000 to $7,500, effective January first. The increase was recommended by the Salary Study Committee, Edward R. Eckert, chairman.

It was pointed out under the law the salary could not be increased during the term of an office holder. When other salary adjustments were made recently the county clerk's salary could not be considered. This is the first increase in salary for the clerk since 1949. Eckert stated the work of the office had increased in recent years and cited the increases in issuance of motor vehicle licenses; the addition of the five county Naturalization program which is administered by Ulster county; the increase in real estate transfers and also the mortgage increase.

The term of County Clerk Lawrence D. Craft expires on December 31, at which time the salary can be legally increased, Eckert said.

No Flood Menace

A report was received from the Ulster County Flood Control Advisory Committee stating that in its opinion Perrine's bridge was not a flood menace and that some protective measures should be taken to protect the bridge pending a decision by the state whether it should be turned over as a public park site and the bridge repaired and saved.

Engineering surveys during construction of the Sawkill School House and Cantine's Bridges was voted. The county superintendent of highways was authorized to recommend some competent person and the chairman of the board was authorized to enter into a contract with such person. The Highway and Bridge Committee recommended that Hardesty and Hanlon, bridge consultants, or some other competent person be engaged.

Other Business

Authority was voted to the county treasurer to hold a public auction of property which has been bid in at tax sale by the county.

A report was received from the Ulster County SPCA giving a financial report of the manner in which the $3,000 county appropriation had been spent.

'Moon' Maintains Course After Week of Space Runs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russia's earth satellite streaked on through space today, apparently untroubled by a shower of meteorite fragments.

Nearing the end of its first week aloft, Sputnik—as the Russians call their man-made moon—was said to be maintaining course and speed, circling the earth once every 96.1 minutes.

Since the Russians shot their sphere into the upper air last Friday night, the satellite has traveled more than 2½ million miles, according to Soviet estimates. Accompanying it, although several hundred miles away, is a part of the rocket that propelled the satellite into its orbit.

The Moonwatch team of New Haven, Conn., which yesterday was the first to spot passage of the satellite's rocket, reported a sighting again today.

Robert Brown, astronomy teacher at State Teachers College and chief of the Moonwatch team, reported seeing two bright objects in

DA Offers To Give His Assistance

Petition Brings Action by State

ALBANY (AP)—Gov. Harriman today directed his acting investigation commissioner to make a preliminary probe of police corruption in Kingston to determine whether full-scale state action was indicated.

Harriman acted after receiving a petition from Kingston residents, who asked him to convene a special term of Supreme Court in Ulster County and to appoint a special prosecutor to conduct an inquiry. The petition bore more than 400 signatures.

Harriman's counsel, Daniel Gutman, said after talking with the governor that Commissioner Arthur L. Reuter "is making a preliminary inquiry to determine if there is any basis for a full state investigation."

Gutman had contacted Harriman in New York City.

Gutman said he had received a letter today from the Ulster County district attorney, Howard St. John, pledging cooperation in any investigation.

DA to Cooperate

District Attorney St. John's letter to Judge Gutman said:

"My office has made an extensive and exhaustive investigation of the Kingston City Police Department, and I would be most happy to go over with you the extent and results of that investigation."

The April 1957 County Court Grand Jury spent over 86 days hearing testimony in this matter, and over 52 witnesses testified. Indictments were returned by this Grand Jury against nine policemen. After reviewing the work of my office and the investigators assigned to me, I feel sure that you will be satisfied that a thorough and conscientious job has been done and that the expense of such an extraordinary session is not warranted or necessary.

You may rest assured of my complete and unqualified cooperation in reviewing this matter with you. The records of my office and the investigative reports of my office will be made available to you at any time.

The petition asserted that the governor should intervene in Kingston because of "apparent apathy" by the police toward recent disclosures of police corruption.

An Ulster County grand jury began a probe last July of a Kingston burglary ring and ties with police. The jury has indicted nine policemen on charges involving burglary, unlawful entry or receiving stolen property. Two have been convicted and are serving jail terms.

The jail sentence of another was suspended. Five more policemen were suspended from the force while awaiting disposition of their cases.

Last week, the grand jury recommended wide changes in police administration, including more careful screening of policemen, stricter inspection of men on duty and a police chief with "thorough understanding of the value of discipline."

Names Withheld

The governor's office declined to reveal names of persons who had signed the petition. A spokesman said it arrived without any "covering" letter that would indicate that it came from any particular source. However, it has been reported that the petition was initiated by a group of the city's Democratic leaders.

C. L. Jellinghaus Funeral Is Held, Former Rail Head

WOODSTOCK—The funeral of Carl L. Jellinghaus, 67, of Bearsburg, New York Central Railroad official, who died Tuesday was held Thursday at St. Barnabas Episcopal Church, Irvington-on-Hudson.

A retired vice-president and general manager of the New York Central System, he died Tuesday night at Phelps Memorial Hospital, Tarrytown, after a short illness.

40 Year Career

Jellinghaus, a railroad man for more than 40 years, began his career as a yard clerk with the Long Island Railroad and in 1914 joined the New York Central System as a clerk. In 1918 he was named special agent for the Buffalo division and after a series of promotions was made executive secretary to the president in 1939.

Jellinghaus was elected vice-president and general manager of the New York Central in 1946 and served in that capacity until 1949 when he was transferred as vice-president and general manager of the Michigan Central lines.

In this latter capacity he was also president and director of the Detroit Terminal Railroad, the Detroit Manufacturers' Railroad and the Detroit River Tunnel Co. and the Canadian Southern Railway. He retired in 1954.

Surviving are a son, C. Butler Jellinghaus; a daughter, Mrs. Barbara Scoppetton, and two sisters, Mrs. H. H. Belsner and Mrs. Karl Knauer, also, a grandchild.

Deaths

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO — George M. Hayes, 60, president of Field Enterprises Educational Corp., a publishing house, died yesterday. The company publishes the World Book encyclopedia and Childcraft and has more than 30,000 sales representatives in the United States, Canada, West Germany, France and Hawaii. Hayes was born in Owensboro, Ky.

BUFFALO — John Turner, 60, managing editor of the old Buffalo Times and of the Newspaper Enterprises Assn., Cleveland, died yesterday. He was born in Buffalo, started his newspaper career in Oakland, Calif., and returned to Buffalo in 1929 with the Buffalo Evening News.

CHICAGO — Louis A. Boening, 80, early movie theater operator and generally credited with ending a producers' monopoly on film projects, died yesterday. Before World War I he organized the United States Cinematograph Co., which manufactured and sold film projects. Before then movie producers rented projectors to operators.

GREAT NECK — David F. Kemp, 88, founder of the U. S. School of Music, a correspondence school, died Wednesday. The school, which Kemp founded in 1898, was the first of its kind in the country and has enrolled more than a million students throughout the world. He was born near Dayton, Ohio.

34 Due at Midway
HONOLULU — Thirty-four of the 42 crewmen taken off the grounded Navy tanker Mission San Miguel were scheduled to arrive at Midway island tomorrow aboard the LST that rescued them.

The other eight, four officers and four seamen, were transferred from the LST to the salvage ship Reclaimer to aid in salvage. The tanker is stranded on the Maro reef 745 miles northwest of Honolulu.

KROUT — At Kingston, N. Y., October 9, 1957, Henrietta Kroust of 231 Main Street, Saugerties.

Funeral service will be held from the Hartley & Lamoree Funeral Home, 8 Second Street, Saugerties on Saturday, October 12 at 2 p. m. Interment Mt. View Cemetery. Friends may call at any time.

DIED
MOORE — In this city, Oct. 10, 1957, Thomas James Moore, husband of Roberta Z. Moore; father of Mrs. Arthur Hansen, James Richard and Thomas Bruce Moore; son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Moore and brother of the Rev. George W. Moore.

Friends may call at the W. N. Conner Funeral Home, Inc., on Saturday and Sunday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m., where funeral will be held on Monday, Oct. 14, at 9 a. m., and from St. Joseph's Church at 9:30 o'clock where a high Mass of requiem will be offered. Burial in St. Mary's Cemetery.

TIERNY — Michael J., at East Kingston, Oct. 10, 1957, son of the late John T. and Margaret Dowling Tierney; brother of Edward of Kingston, Mrs. William Duffy of Sunset Park, William H. of Kingston and Charles Tierney; also surviving are several nieces and nephews.

The funeral will be held from the F. Daniel Halloran Funeral Home, 88 W. Chester Street, Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock thence to St. Colman's Church, East Kingston, where a high Mass of requiem will be offered for the repose of his soul at 10 o'clock. Interment in St. Mary's Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home at any time.

Some of Survey Completed for Tap of Ashokan Basin

A survey for tapping the lower basin of the Ashokan reservoir to meet an expected emergency resulting from the city's diminishing supply in Cooper Lake has been completed, from the Ashokan to Kingston's Reservoir No. 4 at Zena, Edmund T. Cloonan, water department superintendent said today.

This means that an application can now be made to New York City for buying water.

Other Phase Awaited

Another phase of the survey is still to be completed at Cooper Lake by Bogert & Childs, of New York, the city's firm of consulting engineers. This will determine the remaining supply left in the city's main reservoir, and assist in setting the time for tapping of the emergency supply.

It is planned to use a small brook between the Ashokan at West Hurley and the Zena reservoir to feed the latter, which has been maintained by the city for emergency purposes. It holds only between 60,000,000 and 70,000,000 gallons of water, however, and this would not be sufficient of itself to meet an extended emergency.

Easements Needed

The engineers plan to use the open brook, if it can be done. If not a pipeline will be run along its course. The local water department also must obtain rights or easements from property owners along the course of the brook.

Water will be pumped over a low dike at West Hurley into the brook or a pipeline.

Will Be Committed

Bernardo Perez, Plattekill, who was charged by the grand jury with burglary, third degree, and unlawful entry, at the Joseph Vega premises at Plattekill on May 25, has been adjudged incompetent to stand trial at this time and will be committed to Matteawan State Hospital for treatment.

Perez was accused of entrance to the Villa Victoria at Plattekill. Following the indictment he was sent to Middletown State Hospital for observation under a temporary 60 day commitment. At that institution he was found to be mentally incompetent at this time to stand trial. He has been returned to Ulster County and before County Judge Louis G. Bruhn was committed to the Matteawan State Hospital for treatment. Should he later recover and become mentally competent to stand trial he will be returned to Ulster County and face trial.

Bero Bid Lowest

ALBANY — A Waterloo contractor has filed the low bid of $3,492,116 for substructure and approach work on a viaduct carrying Route 5 over the union ship canal at Buffalo.

The Public Works Department said yesterday that the Bero Construction Co. had submitted the lowest of four bids on the job.

Other low bids announced yesterday:

A. S. Wikstrom of Skaneateles, $2,722,561, the lowest of seven for constructing a 6.1-mile alternate Route 37 around the south side of Ogdensburg.

H. L. Baughman Inc. of Rochester, $810,630, the lowest of four for rebuilding a 1.21-mile section of Route 17 in Chautauqua County.

Honor Tuckahoe Doctor

NEW YORK — A Tuckahoe physician who has been practicing medicine for 60 years is the state's "outstanding general practitioner of medicine" for 1957.

The honor was conferred upon Dr. Oliver L. Austin, 84, by the Medical Society of the State of New York yesterday. The organization is made up of 24,500 doctors.

Dr. Austin will be nominated at the American Medical Association's Philadelphia meeting Dec. 3 for consideration as America's outstanding doctor of the year.

The doctor was graduated from Columbia University Medical College in 1896.

Dies of Burns

UTICA — Alden Jenne, 5, of Leonardsville, Madison County, died today at St. Luke's Memorial Hospital center of burns suffered July 4.

Alden and his sister, Marcia, 7, were burned while watching their father clean automobile parts with gasoline at their home.

Marcia still is in critical condition at the hospital center. Albert Jenne told police the children were standing near the family car when the gasoline became ignited. The gasoline splattered on the children, he said. The father suffered a burned left hand.

State Men Elected

CHICAGO — Karl S. Wright of Niagara Falls, N. Y., is the new secretary of the National Assn. of Shippers Advisory Boards.

In elections yesterday, Ralph E. Covey of New York City was chosen as president of the group.

Metal Firm Plans Plant in Wallkill

WALLKILL — Armo Drainage and Metal Products Inc. today announced the purchase of an eight-acre site in this Ulster County community for construction of a $350,000 plant.

The firm, a subsidiary of Armo Steel, said the plant will manufacture corrugated culverts and similar heavy duty drainage equipment. The plant will initially operate with about 25 employees. No date has been set for the start of construction.

Woodland Search Is Started for Missing Plane, 4

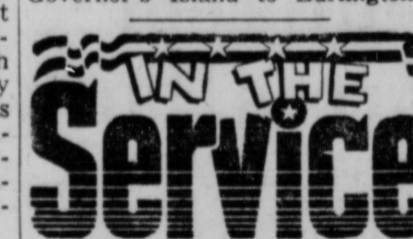

ALBANY — The Army today began a "saturation" search of dense woodlands in northeastern New York and Vermont for the L20 plane missing since Oct. 2 with four officers aboard.

Seventy-nine officers and men using 18 planes began operations from Albany airport. A second force of 35 planes worked south from Burlington, Vt.

An Army spokesman described the operation as an "all out effort to search-saturate" the area where the missing plane is believed to have crashed.

Aboard the missing six-passenger L20 Beaver were: Col. David M. Perkins, 51, of Wichita Falls, Tex.; Col. Emory E. Hyde, 48, of Eugene, Ore.; Lt. Col. Clinton G. Merrill, 44, of Detroit; and Capt. Eual A. Cathey, 33, of Brooklyn.

The plane was headed from Governor's Island to Burlington.

Action Settled

A negligence action brought in Supreme Court by Mildred and Fred Brode against Frederick Kurtz and Kingston Buick Co. Inc., was settled after it had been partially tried Thursday.

The action arose out of a two-car accident at Fair and Wall Streets last December when Brode, driving his wife's car was injured. Kurtz, an employee of Kingston Buick, was delivering a customer's car when the accident happened. Howard C. St. John appeared for plaintiffs and Jenkins of Newburgh for defendants.

KURT ROBERT HAHN, seaman apprentice, U. S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Hahn of Krumville, has completed nine weeks of recruit training at the U. S. Naval Training Center, Bainbridge, Md., according to an announcement by the Local Recruiting Station, Room 209, Central Post Office. The Krumville sailor, a 1957 graduate of Ontario Central School, will spend a 14 day leave with his parents before going back to Bainbridge to attend Navy Radio School. Seaman Hahn successfully completed the transition from civilian to military life, which included instruction in seamanship, ordnance and gunnery, shipboard drill and citizenship. The Krumville bluejacket enlisted in the Navy for a four year period. He is a member of the Samsonville Methodist Church and was active in sports before entering the Navy.

Attending War College
Army Lt. Col. William R. Kraft Jr., son of Mrs. William R. Kraft of 130 Fair Street, and husband of the former Miss Helen Fink of New York City, is attending the Naval War College at Newport, R. I.

Outstanding Student
EASTON, Pa. — Bruce Robert Bechtold, Kingston senior at Lafayette College, has been designated as a distinguished military student in the Lafayette College ROTC and has been promoted to cadet major. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. John Bechtold, 337 Foxhall Avenue.

Vaccine for Troops
ZAMA, Japan — Asian flu vaccine will be available to U. S. troops in Korea by Sunday, the Army announced today.

The Army also expects to get enough vaccine to inoculate all troops in Japan by late October, a medical officer said.

Flint Hills
The Flint Hills of Kansas encompass nearly seven million acres. The Flint Hills are low ridges in the eastern part of the state with very deep, fertile soil.

CLEVELAND — More than 10,000 delegates are expected here October 11 to 16 for the annual international convention of the Disciples of Christ (Christian churches).

Soviet Offer Small
VIENNA — Russia has offered to give 50 kilograms (110 pounds) of uranium 235 to the atomic peace pool of the new international atomic energy agency.

At least 5,000 kilograms—100 times as much.

Prof. V. S. Smelyanov made the Soviet offer yesterday—the correspondent member of the Soviet Academy of Sciences said Russia has "the most advanced knowledge in the field of nuclear science" and is willing to share it with other nations.

Suhrawardy Resigns
KARACHI, Pakistan — Prime Minister H. S. Suhrawardy resigned today and President Iskander Mirza asked Ismail Chundrigar, leader of the opposition Muslim League, to form a new government.

Suhrawardy, who had headed a coalition cabinet for 13 months, quit after the Republican party withdrew its support. The cabinet was made up of five Republicans, five members of the premier's Awami League and one nonparty minister.

Girl Reported Missing
Mrs. T. C. Harvey, of 75 Abel Street notified police at 5:25 p. m., that her sister, Margaret Jansen, 13, had not returned home from high school. She was still reported missing today. She was described as five feet, three inches tall, 130 pounds, and wore a gray skirt, and blue "Ike" jacket.

Was Marlborough Man
It was inadvertently reported yesterday that Donald Shaver, of 75 Albany Street, was the first to find the East boy who was most seriously hurt, and who was unable to leave the scene of the mishap. This credit should have been given to Donald Shaver, of Marlborough, an employee of the records building of the Metropolitan Life Insurance building, 2 South Prospect Street.

Shaver first came upon a shoe, which had been blown off in the explosion, and then found the boy in a brush crop.

Show Cause Order Signed in Rape Case

An order to show cause why a certificate of reasonable doubt should not be granted and also why bail should not be fixed pending determination of an appeal from the conviction of Donald Degroat and Peter Ferraro, was signed today by Supreme Court Justice Donald S. Taylor. The order to show cause is returnable at special term in Kingston Nov. 1. Joseph Avis appeared for the defendants.

Degroat, 24, of 87 Fair Street, father of five children, and Peter Ferraro, 17, of 17 Liberty Street, were found guilty of rape, first degree, and assault on a 17 year old Kingston girl last July 25.

Degroat was sentenced to Clinton prison as a second offender to a term of 10 to 20 years on the rape count and 5 to 10 years on the assault case. Ferraro was committed to the Elmira Reception Center for classification and assignment to a place of confinement. The sentences were imposed Wednesday by County Judge Louis G. Bruhn. At the time of sentence Avis told the court an appeal would be taken. The conviction was attacked on legal grounds and also on the grounds the verdict was against the weight of evidence, and the sentence excessive.

Action Settled
A negligence action brought in Supreme Court by Mildred and Fred Brode against Frederick Kurtz and Kingston Buick Co. Inc., was settled after it had been partially tried Thursday.

Conditions Satisfactory
Mrs. Rosina Ferrari, 37, and her daughter, age 9, of Accord, were reported in "satisfactory" condition at Kingston Hospital today following what State Police at Ellenville reported as an attempt at suicide Thursday evening about 8 o'clock. It was reported they were suffering from the effects of taking rat poison.

Brought to the Kingston Hospital they were treated by Dr. Arthur S. Carr. The circumstances surrounding the act were not immediately available and the case was being further investigated.

Quint Weds Today
MONTREAL — One of the famous Dionne quintuplets Annette, was to be married today in a small, private ceremony. Her sister Cecile plans to take the leap next month.

Annette, 23, was to marry German Allard, lanky 24-year-old agent for a Montreal finance company, in one of Montreal's Roman Catholic churches.

Only members of the families and a few guests—about 20 in all—were told the time and place of the rites.

Plan Graham Followup
NEW YORK — An estimated 40,000 clergymen and women are expected to take part in a massive door-to-door "visitation evangelism" program in New York City in October, as a followup to Billy Graham's crusade here.

Plans are that the visiting teams will reach some 180,000 unchurched persons.

Centenary Mass To Honor Sisters Of Good Shepherd

Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, will preside at a Pontifical Mass of Thanksgiving marking a century of service by the Sisters of The Good Shepherd in the Archdiocese of New York on Monday, October 14, at 10 a. m. in St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Most Rev. Joseph F. Flannelly, auxiliary bishop of New York and administrator of the cathedral, will celebrate the Centenary Mass and Most Rev. William A. Scully, bishop of Albany, N. Y., will preach the sermon.

Dedicated to the reeducation and rehabilitation of homeless, pre-delinquent and delinquent girls the work of the Sisters of The Good Shepherd was originated by St. John Eudes, a Norman missionary, in Caen, France, in 1641. The community was later reorganized in 1829 under the guidance of Mother Mary of St. Euphrasia, who at the age of 29 became the first Superior General of the religious order. At the time of her death in 1868 she had established over a period of 39 years a total of 110 charitable institutions all over the world, including 77 on the North American continent. A pioneer in the field of social service and frequently described as "one of the greatest sociologists of the ages," Mother Euphrasia was raised to the honors of the altar and canonized a saint by Pope Pius XII on May 2, 1940. She is known as the "Saint of Sociology."

The Sisters of The Good Shepherd operate three of the 188 welfare institutions and agencies of the New York Archdiocese coordinated under New York Catholic Charities. They are St. Germain's Home and the Villa Loretta School for Girls, Peekskill, New York, and The Good Shepherd Residence in Manhattan.

Think It Through

By E. F. HUTTON

SOCIAL SECURITY IN TROUBLE

In this hot-rod age, the old proverb is forgotten,—even as, "Don't drive a free horse to death," or "The last straw breaks the camel's back."

To illustrate: For the first time our Social Security system is now paying out more than it is taking in. It is doing so years before the "experts" thought this possible.

At the same time there are a hundred bills in Congress to increase the pay-out, by adding more and bigger benefits.

A wise man would say, "Cut your coat by your cloth."

One of these bills, endorsed by the A.F.L.-C.I.O. Executive Council, would increase old-age, survivors and disability benefits by 10%, and add costs of hospital, nursing and surgical treatment.

If enacted, this will be the fourth increase in benefits since the system started. The bill proposes to increase the tax on workers and employers by one-half of one per cent, and the taxable earnings from 4200's to 6,000's a year.

But all other taxes are going up, as well as Federal, State, corporate and personal debt.

A "cushion" is mentioned of 22 billion $'s. But there is no money in it. The billions have been spent all over the globe. The cushion is nothing but a promissory note to be paid, if ever, only out of still more taxes.

Neighbor, look before you leap!

Faces 60 Years To Life for Fire Fatal to Wife

UTICA (AP)—Charles Konono, 33, of Rome, faces a possible prison sentence of 60 years to life next Tuesday for setting a fire that resulted in the death of his estranged wife.

An Oneida County court jury yesterday convicted Konono of second-degree murder and first-degree arson. He was accused of setting a fire last May 16 in a Rome rooming house in which his wife, Margaret, 40, lived.

She died in the fire. Twenty other tenants fled to safety.

Konono had been indicted on charges of first-degree murder, for which the penalty can be death, as well as first-degree arson. The trial began Sept. 30.

Judge Ezra Hanagan said he would pass sentence Tuesday. The maximum penalties are imprisonment for 20 years to life for second-degree murder and 40 years for first-degree arson.

Baptists Reaffirm Racial Equality

SCHENECTADY (AP)—The New York State Baptist Convention has reaffirmed its belief in "Christian fellowship with people of all the races."

The convention, at the close of its 15th annual meeting yesterday, approved a resolution saying that belief in racial equality would be in line with "our constant need for the love of Christ."

Another resolution urged members to vote Nov. 5 against a proposed state constitutional amendment to legalize bingo under certain conditions for churches and other non-profit organizations.

The four-day meeting was attended by about 1,000 delegates.

'Peeping Tom'

"Peeping Tom" was named for the man, Thomas, who peeped at the nude Lady Godiva riding a horse through Coventry, England, to force her husband, the Earl of Mercia, to lower an oppressive tax. The earl lowered the tax, so her ride gained its purpose.

Counters Ike Doctrine

New Khrushchev Tantrum Evident in His Latest Blast

By ED CREAGH

AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—As President Eisenhower has said: There is no use getting hysterical.

It is to be hoped that Russia's Nikita S. Khrushchev was listening to the President's words and will heed them.

For the Soviet party boss sounds on the verge of a terrible tantrum in his latest outburst. And, however, much U. S. officials may try to downgrade the Russians' rocket-launched satellite, there is no doubt Khrushchev has the weapons to start World War III at any moment.

With Differences

What the Soviet leader has done, in an interview with a New York Times representative, is to announce a Khrushchev doctrine to counter the Eisenhower doctrine on the Middle East. But with this difference:

The United States, well knowing the risks, went on record at the last session of Congress as being willing to help any Middle East country which might be threatened with outside (meaning, for the most part, communist) aggression. There was a big "if" in the declaration on which Eisenhower and Congress finally got together. It said the United States would step in only if the threatened country asked for help.

Now comes Khrushchev with no such asked for help.

One thing might be to tell the world exactly what role this country has been playing in the Middle East, and to document it in every possible way. This is assuming that our role has been honorable and that we have nothing to be ashamed of. We could make our case by matching Khrushchev's frankness—but not, as Eisenhower would be the first to say, his note of near-hysteria.

Local Delegates To Attend State Teacher's Parley

Delegates from Kingston are attending the annual convention of Empire State Federation of Teachers at DeWitt Clinton Hotel, Albany, this weekend.

William Scaffidi of Hasbrouck Avenue is president of the local unit.

Eliot Birnbaum, a Syracuse teacher will make the keynote speech. He serves as federation president.

The major function of the convention is the formulation of proposed bill for the 1958 session of the State Legislature.

Edward Sorenson, chief state social security agent will be the principal speaker at the convention dinner Saturday evening.

such "if." He unleashes a tirade against the "ruling circles" in this country. He says they are "intensively pushing" Turkey toward a war with Soviet-backed Syria. He makes it plain that Russia will use force, if necessary, to defend its "interests." And he sounds as if he were talking about a war which could start tomorrow.

If this mishmash could be dismissed as only the ramblings of a loudmouth, the world would be better off.

As it happens, though, Khrushchev is top man in a country that has made it abundantly clear it has plenty of advanced weapons and knows how to fire them. It also happens that Khrushchev, far from talking through vodka fumes, was weighing every syllable.

What can you do about a man like Khrushchev, besides build more missile-launchers in the right place?

Match Frankness

One thing might be to tell the world exactly what role this country has been playing in the Middle East, and to document it in every possible way. This is assuming that our role has been honorable and that we have nothing to be ashamed of. We could make our case by matching Khrushchev's frankness—but not, as Eisenhower would be the first to say, his note of near-hysteria.

KINGSTON, NEW YORK, OCTOBER 11, 1957

BILLION UP IN SMOKE

Americans are setting one record this year that is no cause for rejoicing. Fire losses are almost certain to pass the billion dollar mark for the first time by year's end. That would be more than 10 million dollars above the previous record high set in 1956.

Some of the fire loss increase can be blamed on higher costs. That does not, however, explain away the fact that the number of fires is on the increase. Last year, for example, there were 865,561 fires; in 1942, there were only 650,335.

The obvious question that comes to mind is: What can we do about it? The answer is that we ought to step up the pace of what we have been doing—schooling ourselves to recognize and correct fire hazards, and taking the precautions dictated by common sense and experience. Organized fire prevention training has paid off handsomely in the past, and it will continue to do so.

Despite the effectiveness of fire prevention programs, it still remains true that curbing fire losses is an individual as well as a community responsibility. Consider, for example, the fact that about 26 per cent of the nation's fires are caused by matches and smoking. The smoker, the user of matches, is the one who can act most directly to reduce this particular fire hazard. The same thing is true, in varying degree, of the other leading causes of fires.

The fact is that here, as in many other situations, the individual must carry his full weight. He cannot shrug and depend on concerted action in the community. On the contrary, he himself, multiplied by all the millions of our population, is the best tool for cutting down on fire loss. A tool, to be effective, must be used.

SCATTERED HISTORY

The historian of today's America must do some jumping around the country. Besides the Library of Congress at Washington, and the large university and public libraries, he must consult also the Franklin Roosevelt documents at Hyde Park, N. Y., the Truman papers at Independence, Mo., and the Eisenhower library at Abilene, Kan. To these have now been added the materials in the Sam Rayburn memorial library at Nonham, Tex., whose dedication is scheduled for Oct. 9.

Rayburn has been speaker of the house for 13 years, longer than any other man. He has been in Congress for 45 years, one of the longest services on record. He began in 1948 to collect the letters, books and papers that make up the library. Private donations have paid most of the cost.

This dispersion of historical materials has the merit of preventing the loss of priceless items which concentration might bring about in war. Yet it is hard on a busy, impoverished historian who has to round up widely separated documents. Fortunately there is a solution: microfilming. All the presidential libraries now housed separately should be microfilmed, thus making their contents widely available.

NEW BUCK TO PASS

The auto manufacturers are not the only ones coming out with a new model of their product. The United States Treasury also has started producing an improved version of that popular commodity, the dollar bill.

Like the new cars, the new dollar bill will be somewhat different in external appearance. It will bear a brand new signature, that of the Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson. The bill also will carry the time-honored coinage motto, "In God We Trust." Of more importance is the fact that the new bills will be printed on dry paper instead of wet paper, a process that will save both time and money.

At one point, unfortunately, the parallel between the new car models and the new model simoleon breaks down. Whereas Detroit will doubtless be able to brag once again about greater power under the hood, the Treasury can make no such claims. The

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY
ON THE SATELLITE

Everybody has had something to say about the satellite which Soviet Russia hurled into space and much of what has been said disregards the very simple fact that this accomplishment represents an enormous technical capacity by a nation which only 40 years ago possessed no or little technical capacity and which utilizes an economic system which we in the Western world have consistently insisted cannot produce anything new and great because individual initiative had been removed and the incentives to production had disappeared.

Having witnessed this spectacle of technical capacity and manufacturing know-how, it is essential that we recognize the truism that no people has a monopoly on brains and that no one system of life is the only system available to the human race. The significance of our system is that it recognizes that man is endowed with free will and possesses the right of freedom of choice. The Russians insist on a biological interpretation of man; therefore he need not be free.

This cannot mean that we cringe before Soviet Russia or that we become panicky or that we destroy our standards of life either to accept the spiritual poverty of totalitarianism or the economic cost of manufacturing only for destruction. What it can mean for us, perhaps what it ought to mean for us, is that we recognize that we have become too sure of ourselves, almost fatuously sure of ourselves, and that therefore intellectuals have been permitted to grow less robust than they were in the days of Edison, Westinghouse, Steinmetz, Pugin, De Forest and all the other mechanical geniuses, including Henry Ford and the Wright brothers, who were not bogged down either by governmental or corporate bureaucracy. They were free individuals, taking the risks of failure—failure which came to others who also tried.

When lawyers and public relations counsel lay down policy for industrial progress, the slowing-up may become disastrous because their interests are defensive rather than aggressive. They prefer the status quo to controversial brilliance. Soviet Russia has been able to achieve the goal of setting off its satellite before we could get ours ready for several reasons, some good, some bad:

1. A totalitarian country can concentrate on a particular task in disregard of all other needs;
2. They therefore do not have to consider the pressure for consumers' goods which, in a free society, is both politically and socially important;
3. The control of a Soviet budget and the fiscal devices to support it are not subject to popular criticism and control;

4. There can be no quarrel among the governmental agencies as to which is to do what; those who question the wisdom of directives are not only immediately removed from office but they may, in the new dispensation, be exiled, as in the old one, they were killed. The most efficient method for the removal of opposition and difference of opinion is murder, which is available to them and not to us.

All this makes for effectiveness but it destroys human freedom. What we have now discovered is that so far as production is concerned, such a system not only works imitatively but it stimulates original thinking outside the political and social fields where originality remains forbidden.

This requires study and analysis in the West; not imitation, adulation, or denial. A fact is a fact and the satellite is a fact. It spins in the vast heavenly void and beeps in time. It can be heard and will probably soon be seen. Therefore to say that it is not an achievement is the emotional response of our grapes, not an intelligent reaction to a novel and historic phenomenon.

The propagandistic value of the satellite is obvious, but that will pass if nothing worse happens. The danger in the United States is that the drums will boom to make more of our boys engineers and to fill our scientific schools to capacity without regard to intelligence. This is a stupid approach to the problem because intelligence is not measured quantitatively. One Edison or Westinghouse is worth more than a classroom of misfits.

What we need to discover truthfully, without propaganda for any cause, is why we have fallen behind in what has obviously been our field. That we must know before we can catch up with the Russians who are beating us in our specialty. (Copyright, 1957, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

★ Dr. Jordan Says ★
Cause of Nail Trouble Is Often Difficult to Find
BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Mrs. J. C. writes that she has been having a great deal of trouble with splitting fingernails. She adds that she has been taking calcium, gelatin, and wearing rubber gloves because of the possibility that soaps are partly responsible. She wonders particularly whether this difficulty is related to an operation she had some time ago for removal of the womb—hysterectomy.

It is possible, of course, that there is some relation to the operation but it seems unlikely. It is certain that trouble with the nails or other difficulties is quite common. While I cannot make any specific recommendations, the subject is certainly worth discussing.

THE NAILS OF THE fingers and toes are subject to a number of difficulties from local disorders— Injury, dietary deficiencies, general skin diseases. For example, most of us will get temporary ridging of the nails following a severe illness associated with fever. This, as a rule, is not permanent.

It is doubtless true that the nails are affected by disorders of the glands of internal secretion, poorly fitted shoes or gloves, dirt and neglect. One of the most important diseases which affect the nails directly is an inflammation around the base—that is in the nail bed. This is the result of infection with germs and its common name is "whitlow."

A single nail may be involved or all of them. This results in ridging and sometimes the nail separates and falls off. The treatment, of course, is to attack the infection. In extremely severe cases the nail may have to be removed.

RINGWORM can affect the nails and may be difficult to cure. Psoriasis is another skin disease which may cause nails to become pitted and deformed. White spots, or streaks often appear in the nails. This is most common in young people, and is on the fingers rather than the toes.

Irritation of the nails from polishes or lacquers is sometimes responsible for difficulty. In psoriasis, ringworm or eczema of the nails, treatment has to be aimed at the particular disease responsible.

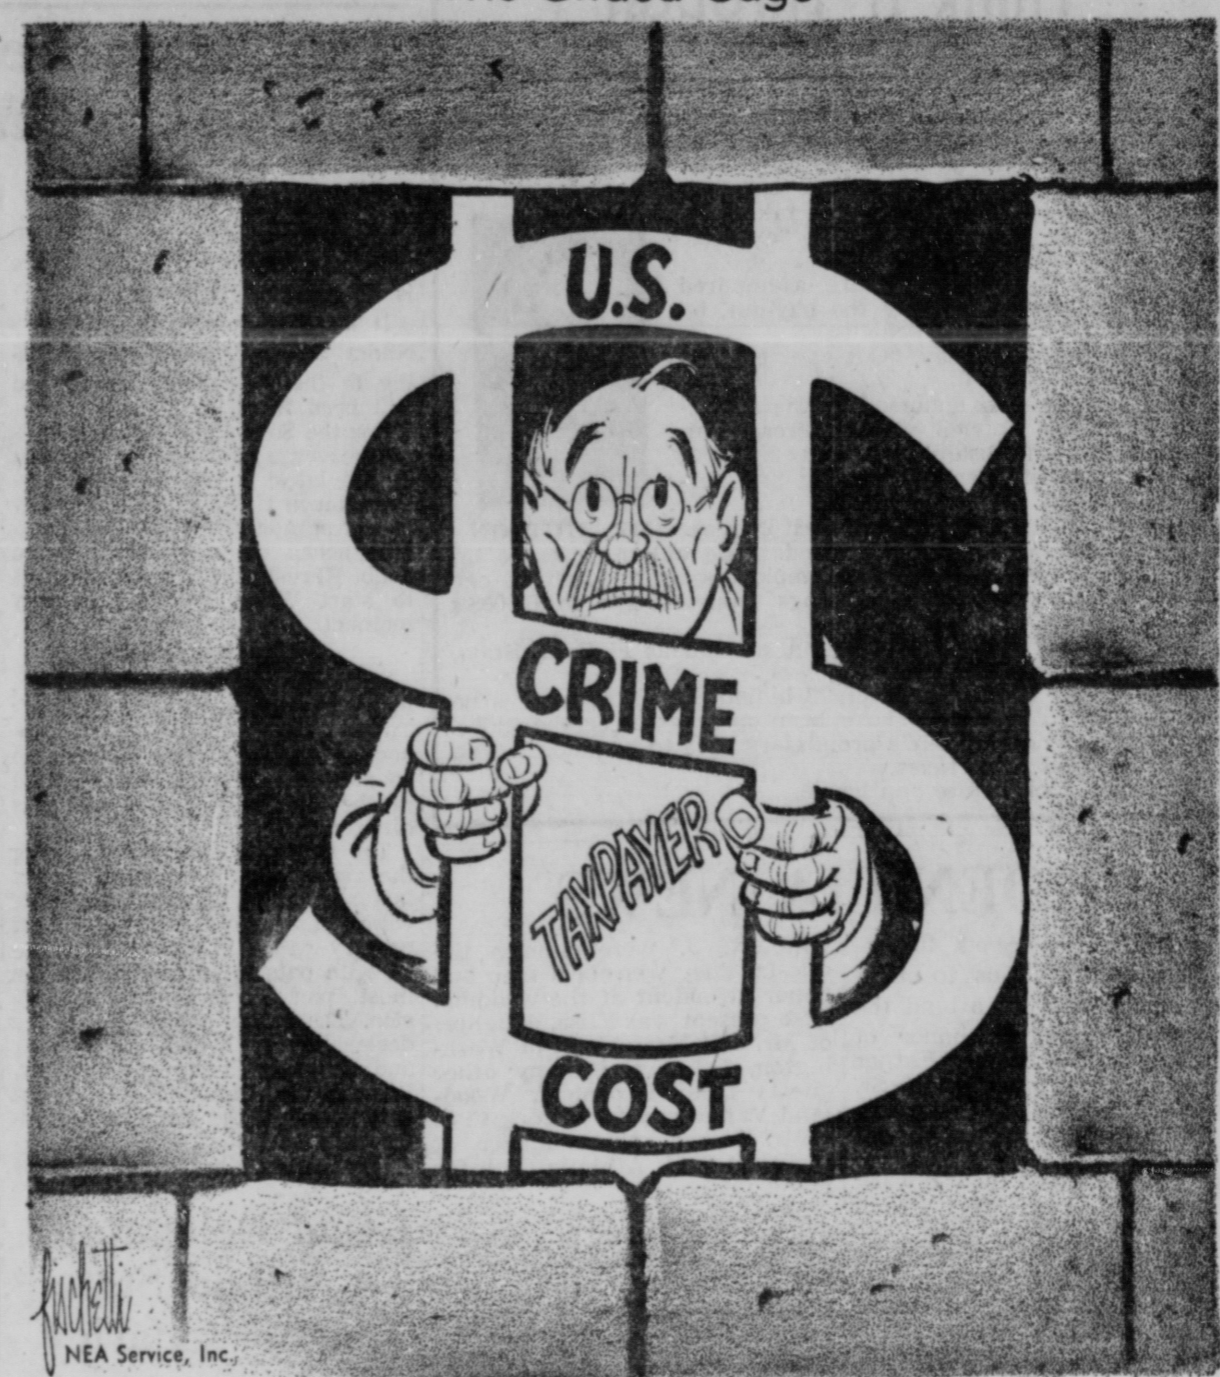

When some general condition is at fault, such as a vitamin deficiency or wasting disease, local treatment is not likely to be effective. The distant cause must be identified and appropriate treatment undertaken.

DISTURBANCES of the nails are common. The cause is often difficult to identify and cure is often tantalizingly slow.

The maintenance of general good health, avoidance of injury and good care of the nails are probably the most important precautionary measures.

dismal truth of the matter is that, despite its fancy new trimmings, the 1957 model dollar bill is going to limp along with only about half the buying power possessed by some earlier models of happy memory.

Washington News

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — It's hard for most Americans to get very excited about the Algerian fight for independence from France. But the official U. S. "hands-off" policy on this issue is becoming increasingly difficult to maintain.

Few Americans have any appreciable first hand knowledge of the area. Their regard for it isn't too high.

There is a natural Algerian instinct to support the Algerian underdogs in their revolutionary independence movement.

There is also a vague annoyance at French inability to solve this Algerian problem and for pulling U. S.-equipped French troops out of the NATO lines in Europe to fight the poor, beat-up Arab rebels in North Africa.

Officially, the U. S. government's position has been consistent support of France.

But every time the embarrassing Algerian question comes up in United Nations, it becomes harder to brush it aside.

Last year the General Assembly passed a resolution hoping that a just solution would be found. This year there is a resolution noting that no progress has been made and hinting openly that something ought to be done about it.

THIS YEAR'S RESOLUTION is backed by 22 nations. Nineteen are Middle East and South-east Asia Moslem countries from Libya to Indonesia. The others are India, Japan and the Philippines.

Against such pressure there is some question as to how long the United States can continue to be so standoffish.

Satellite 'Hysteria' Decried, President's Position Backed

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower's refusal to be stamped by the excitement over the Soviet experiments in outer space is an example of courageous statesmanship.

Judging by some of the hysterical outcries of various people, including some of the politicians, America should bow her head in shame, pull down the flag and offer to surrender at once to the tyrants in the Kremlin.

Or else, it is impulsively urged, the United States should begin spending billions upon billions no matter if it unbalances the budget, forces the purchasing power of the dollar down to ten cents and brings on a financial and economic debacle.

How amazing it is that, by the simple stunt of spinning an iron ball around the world, Americans in vast numbers can be led to lose their heads in an anguished clamor of the "for-God-sakes-do-something" variety.

What the Russian scientists have accomplished doesn't mean that the people of Soviet Russia are any safer today, with erratic and unscrupulous leaders in the Kremlin, than they were yesterday. Nor does it mean that hydrogen bombs, which can be dropped on all the important centers of the Soviet Union by jet bombers flying from bases within a few minutes from the Soviet borders, have suddenly become useless.

Many Seem Frightened

About all the experiment in outer space has accomplished is to scare too many Americans into thinking that back of this device is another, more deadly, in the form of intercontinental missiles. Human beings, however, are killed just as quickly with hydrogen bombs dropped from planes as they are from atomic warheads embedded in intercontinental missiles.

The balance of power in the world hasn't shifted because a lot of Americans, especially many of the politicians, have lost their sense of balance. President Eisenhower doesn't profess to be a scientist, but he has had the good judgment to rely on the best scientific brains the United States can assemble. The decision was made by the scientists themselves to go ahead with the ballistic program and let the stunts in outer space take place of time.

Mr. Eisenhower, with characteristic courtesy, did not hesitate to speak highly of the Russian scientists. He might have said also, however, that much of what they know has

The President isn't going to rush into big expenditures just because of what the Russians have done. He is likely to ask Congress for more money only when our own trusted scientists think it can be well spent—and they have not urged any major change in recent months and are not likely to do so even in the face of Russia's stunt.

Mr. Eisenhower is keeping his feet on the ground, where they belong—for the need of a balance and an equilibrium in a world so easily swayed by stunts and foreign propaganda is even greater than it has been. If America cannot get her story of freedom across to the enslaved except by spending billions for space ships to the moon, then indeed is freedom in the world in a sorry plight.

BABSON on BUSINESS

By Roger W. Babson

Babson Discusses the Central West's Opportunity
BABSON PARK, Mass., Oct. 10—Some day our great Central West will blossom like a rose. That is why it is called the "Magic Circle." This includes the six states of Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri, Oklahoma, and Arkansas, which have a total area of about 400,000 square miles.

Why Called the Magic Circle? Because the area has the potential of being the breadbasket of the entire United States. It has good soil, much sunshine, and in some years, plenty of rain. Unfortunately, however, it has very dry periods for some years, and then a deluge which takes away good topsoil and does other harm.

This lack of regulated water holds back agriculture, handicaps industry, and makes retail trade very fluctuating. There is much talk of some form of federal insurance to offset the very dry periods, but such insurance is wholly unnecessary. Moreover, "rainmaking" by chemicals is only "robbing Peter to pay Paul."

Where the Water Will Come From The western part of Canada is blessed with heavy rainfall. This rainfall collects in four lakes: Great Bear Lake, Great Slave Lake, Lake Athabaska, and Lake Winnipeg. These are part of a tremendous system carrying this fresh water into the Arctic Ocean. Here the water is not only wasted, but dangerous fogs are created which affect ocean navigation and the climate of various regions.

Some day an artificial river will be constructed from these lakes, across the Canadian line southerly to the very center of the United States. This "center" will be near Greenwood County, of which Eureka, Kansas, is the hub. From Eureka, the water will radiate in different directions to provide water for all sections of the Magic Circle.

My Personal Investments I am interested in the woodlands of New Hampshire, in likefront land in Florida; and, of course, in land in Wellesley, Mass.; but the only pasture land which interests me is in this Magic Circle. I have bought such land because I believe that some day an artificial river will be constructed to utilize this run-off water by sending it southerly to the Magic Circle instead of letting it be wasted in the Arctic Circle. These 400,000 square miles will be glad to pay Canada for this water, which is now of no use to Canada.

Plans should immediately be made and negotiations started. We should wait until we are in

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK — A 100-million-dollar-a-day prop to business may get a little shaky next year. This is the amount business itself has been putting back into the economy each day of this year on average in its spending for plant and equipment.

Many company executives are saying today they won't spend at that rate in 1958.

Contracts Declining

Contract awards for factory construction are declining. Corporate directors are appropriating far less money now for new capital spending than they were a year ago. These two trends won't show up in actual spending volume until some time in 1958.

Surveys of intentions show an increasing number of companies expecting to trim such spending next year. One just made by the Research Institute of America indicates the spending next year could drop seven billion dollars below this year's record 37 billion dollars. Other surveys look for only a two billion dollar drop in annual rate in the early months of 1958.

Reasons given: Uncertainty over the business outlook; the capacity to produce already in excess of demand for the time being; and the natural completion of big programs started some time back.

The staff of the Congressional Joint Economic Committee says the drop has been long foreseen and should surprise no one.

Surveys are made by the government, business publications, and private business advisory services such as the institute. Their reports on spending intentions offer industry in general some idea of what to expect — and such forecasting becomes increasingly necessary in today's complex business world.

Boom Leveling Off

A survey by the Department of Commerce and the Securities and Exchange Commission shows the expansion boom leveling off now and dropping slightly by the end of the year.

The expected total this year of 37 billion dollars would be 6.5 per cent over the 35 billion spent last year, which was a whopping 22.5 per cent over spending in 1955. Spending less this year than last were auto, textile and stone, clay and glass product companies.

The survey of intentions for the first half of 1958 by the Research Institute brought replies from 1,000 businesses, large and small. Top men in 46 per cent of these companies say they would spend less than in the first half of 1957 — and more than half of them say spending will be cut by 50 per cent or more. Figuring this as an overall cut of about 20 per cent, the institute says this could drop the annual rate by seven billion dollars.

711,000 Fewer Jobs

WASHINGTON — Both farm and factory employment declined in September — a month in which they normally rise — and contributed to a 711,000 decline in the nation's employment.

The commerce and labor department, in their monthly employment report, estimated total employment at 65,674,000 and unemployment only slightly changed from August at 2,552,000.

The manufacturing industries, which usually add workers from August to September, lost 51,000 last month. Their total payrolls, at 16,917,000, are now 200,000 below a year ago.

Plans Tonawanda Plant

TONAWANDA — The American Brake Shoe Co. said today it now planned to build a new plant for the manufacture of cast-steel railroad car wheels here instead of in LeRoy, as previously announced.

The need for large quantities of water, available here from the Niagara River or Lake Erie, was cited as one reason for locating the six-million-dollar plant here.

New Paltz Area Methodist Notes

Black-Diamond Supper

Wednesday, Oct. 16, marks the date of the annual black-diamond supper sponsored, prepared, and served by the men and women of New Paltz Methodist Church, Main and Grove Streets.

Servings of the roast beef dinner will be at 5:30 and 7 p. m. in the social hall of the church. Buddy Ingraham and Willard Hornbeck are co-chairmen with assistance coming from Mrs. Joseph Marks, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Fredenburgh, Mrs. Daisy Tighue, Louis Huber, Mr. and Mrs. William Segmalkuche Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Ronk, E. Ahlberg, and Clarence Place.

Tickets may be procured from members of the church, Doug's Auto Service, Margie's Dress Shop, or Dearnley's Drug Store.

Worship Services

Sunday worship services continue to be held in New Paltz Methodist Church, Main and Grove Streets, at 8:30 a. m. and at 11 a. m.

This Sunday the Rev. Willett Porter will preach at both services on "A Church Equal to This Hour" with similar sermons being delivered in Lloyd at the 9:15 a. m. service and in Plutarch at 2 P. M. New members will be received into the fellowship of the church and the Sacrament of Baptism will be administered at the 11 o'clock service.

Choirs Rehearse

The reestablishment of a younger children's choir took place Wednesday at the Methodist Church.

Mrs. R. Francis Hasbrouck, director of the Junior choir for the past year announces that Wednesday afternoons at 3:30 a kindergarten-primary choir will rehearse. The junior choir will still meet to rehearse under Mrs. Hasbrouck's direction Thursday afternoon 3:30. New members are always welcome.

MYF Work Project

Are the leaves falling faster than you can rake them? Are you dreading that window-washing job? Do you dislike switching screens for storm windows? Are you looking for someone to help with that ambitious toddler?

According to the Rev. Willett Porter the intermediate Methodist youth fellowship of the New Paltz Parish has the solution for your problem. They will be available for odd jobs Saturday, Oct. 19 between 9 a. m. and 5 p. m. at a nominal fee. They need funds because their treasury is empty after summer institutes.

For information call Shirley Porter.

Congregational Dinner

The congregational dinner for members and friends of New Paltz Methodist Church which has already been announced through the mail, will be held Wednesday, Oct. 23 at 6:30 p. m. in the social hall of the church.

It will be a spaghetti and meatball dinner prepared and served by the members of the Plutarch Church. There will be brief talks by various chairmen of the sector general committee, a film, and facilities for the children.

Sector Committee

The final meeting of the proposal committee of the sector program in the Methodist Church will be held Friday at 7:30 in the fellowship room of the church, according to Charles Smith, proposal committee chairman. Final proposals or suggestions may be brought to that meeting by any member or friend of the church.

High-Speed Longhand Offered at Saugerties

The high-speed longhand course which will be offered for the first time in the Saugerties Adult Education program should appeal to anyone who has wished to learn shorthand.

By this system of alphabetic symbols, a person can learn rather easily to take notes or formal dictation. People who already know typing and would like to become stenographers will find this course invaluable.

Useful To All

Business men who may wish to take conference notes, college bound students and others who want to take notes rapidly will also benefit from this course.

Miss June Overbaugh who teaches a similar course at International Business Machines

Corporation will be the instructor. The first class will be held Monday at 7 p. m. in room 31 of the Main Street School. Registration may be made by mail, or by coming to the Main Street School during school hours, or at the first class. The fee is nominal.

GOP Won't Take Definite Stand On Convention

ALBANY (AP)—Upstate Democrats were lined up solidly today in support of a state constitutional convention while the state Republican organization was without a stand on the question.

The Democratic position on the issue, which will go before the voters of the state in the Nov. 2 election, was taken yesterday at a meeting attended by 46 upstate chairmen and their vice chairmen.

At the same time, the executive committee of the Republican State Committee decided that no party policy should be established on the issue, although top-ranking members of the GOP are opposed to a convention.

State Chairman J. Judson Morhouse told reporters that there was some disagreement over the issue among the 19 attending but that they finally agreed unanimously that the party as such should not attempt to influence the voters.

It was felt rather that the GOP should "let the people decide for themselves," Morhouse said. The chairman said he had recommended this decision, although he personally was opposed to the convention system of revising the Constitution.

Negro Girl Absent

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Eight Negro students were escorted into Central High School today for the windup of their third class week of integrated education.

One of the six Negro girls who with three boys have been attending Central High under federal troop protection since Sept. 25, did not appear for classes today. There was no immediate explanation of her absence.

The relatively few students on the campus paid little heed to the Negroes as they entered. However, a carload of teen-age white girls hooted "niggers" as they drove by the front of the school. Reporters recognized the girl driver as one of the active anti-integrationists in the student body.

Armed soldiers around the massive building bore silent witness that the legal stalemate was unresolved as the first third of the current school semester ended.

Temple Pond Is Sold, New Owner Will Clear Area

Kenozia Lake, also known as Temple Pond, which for many years was owned by the club and operated as a private fishing preserve, has been sold to James F. Junge of 660 York Road, Jenkintown, Pa.

Located along the Ashokan Boulevard near Ashokan, the club facilities have not been used very extensively for several years since the club house was sold to Harry H. and Ethel H. Zimmerman in 1945. In the present transfer only the lake and surrounding area was acquired by Junge. It is understood the lake will be cleared out and once again made one of the beauty spots of the area. In recent years the lake has become filled with shrubs and other growth.

The premises was acquired during the days of the construction of the Ashokan reservoir by a group of local men who operated it as a private club. Prior to its being acquired by Kenozia Club it was owned by the Reservoir Holding Corporation, which owned it and sold a portion of the property to New York City for reservoir purposes. The club house portion of the premises was sold to the Zimmermans in 1945. Since then there has been little use of the premises by the club members.

Plan on 2-Way

received was one from Miss Carolyn L. Sprague of Rensselaer asking that efforts be made to preserve Perrine's bridge. Filed.

Louis Suhoff appeared before the board and in behalf of the Girl Scout program of the county. In Kingston the Scout program is included in the Community Fund but in the county other means of financing are necessary. A campaign from October 23 to November 3 to reach the $7,500 goal will be conducted. He asked the supervisors to support the local committee in their areas so that the 2080 Girl Scouts might continue their activities.

The board adjourned to meet November 14.

Saugerties School

proved the engaging of one additional school teacher as soon as such a person can be secured. Subject matter to be taught is English. Superintendent Grant D. Morse reported other vacancies in the teaching staff at the present time for which candidates are invited to apply: Vocal music teacher, 8th grade math and science teacher; middle grades position.

Two members of the board, Robert Herb and Milton Armstrong, will represent the District at the annual meeting of the New York State School Boards in Syracuse Oct. 27-29.

Three new feeder routes, numbers 15, 16 and 17 were approved by the board as follows:
Route 15: Start at the Glasco School to Fuller Corner, turn south on Route 32 to the Spada Apartments, return to Fuller Corner, turn left to Rt. 9W, left at Schoenaght Corner, south on Route 9W to the Schneider Hotel. Leave 11:45 a.m.

Route 16: Start at the Katsbaan School to Route 32, turn north to the MacNiven residence. Leave 2:20 p.m.
Route 17: Start at Rice residence on Williams Band Camp Road to Route 212 and return, picking up all children to Route 212. Trip 1 arrive approximately 7:20 a. m.; Trip 2 leave approximately 3:45 p. m., and Trip 3 leave approximately 4:30 p. m.

Staff members for the cafeteria soon to be established in the Mount Marion and Glasco Schools were approved as follows: for Glasco, Mrs. Margaret Sasso. In the event additional help is needed for Glasco, Mrs. Albert Greco will be appointed to the position. For the Mount Marion cafeteria, Mrs. Alice May DuBois was appointed, and in the event additional help is needed, Mrs. Thomas B. Atkins will assist.

The board voted formal approval of an appraisal of the properties of the Saugerties Central School District in order more accurately to determine the amount of insurance coverage that should be carried.

The board voted to continue membership in the Mid-Hudson School Study Council. This council is made up of representatives from the schools in the Mid-Hudson Valley, ranging from Saugerties on the north to Beacon on the south.

German and Slide Rule Adult Classes Stated

Two of the courses which will be offered in the Saugerties Adult Education program if there is sufficient registration are German, and the use of the slide rule.

A minimum of 12 is necessary for any course. If there are enough additional registrants for these courses, they will be offered as originally scheduled.

The German class will provide an excellent opportunity for anyone to learn conversational German. The instructor, very experienced in the use of the German language, is the Rev. William C. J. Weidt. The first class will meet Monday at 7:30 p. m. in room 40 of the Main Street School.

A six weeks' course in the use of the slide rule is being offered by Miss N. Leona Hogan, head of the mathematics department of Saugerties High School. In this course the use of the slide rule will be explained and practice will be given.

Registration for either of the above courses may be made by mail, or by coming to the Main Street School during school hours, or by registering at the first class. The registration fee for either course is nominal.

Adult English Classes To Register on Monday

SAUGERTIES—Do you know a foreign born adult who wishes to learn English? If so, you are asked to call his attention to the special English classes being offered as part of the Saugerties Adult Education Program, according to Miss A. Frances Larned, assistant director.

These classes will provide an excellent opportunity for the foreign born person to become familiar with English. Starting the week of October 14, one class in English for foreign born adults will be held Monday at 7:30 p. m. in the Main Street School, Saugerties.

Another class will be held Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in the Glasco School. Registration may be made by mail, or at the Main Street School during school hours, or at the first class. A nominal fee is charged.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sloboda of Evesport returned home Wednesday from New Bloomfield, Pa., where they visited the Rev. and Mrs. La Roy Dietrich. The Rev. Mr. Dietrich is the former pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church of West Camp.

Henry Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry A. Smith, former residents of Malden and now of Windemere, Barclay Heights, suffered a broken leg during football practice at Saugerties Central High School scrimmage field Tuesday.

The Auxiliary of Malden-West Camp Fire Company meets Tuesday at 8 p. m. in Malden firehouse.

West Camp Dartball team will play Centerville Fire Company parish hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moon of Cementon expect to move into their new home on the Malden flats off Malden Turnpike next month.

Mrs. Anna Schoonmaker of Saugerties has returned to her home following a few days visit with her daughter and family, Mrs. Oliver Bogart of Stone Ridge.

No Bus Opposition

A public hearing on application of the Mountain View Coach Lines, Inc. for changes of route in the uptown area held in the city court room, city hall last night was without opposition. The changes are in conformance with the uptown one-way street pattern. The hearing, conducted by First Ward Alderman Hirschell Mayes, as chairman of the Common Council's railroad and bus committee, closed shortly after it opened at 7 p. m.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock market prices churned in very active trading today, leaving the market lower on balance early this afternoon.

Leading issues were down from fractions to around 2 points. A sprinkling of small gainers melted away gradually.

It was a violent follow-up from yesterday's slump, the sharpest in two years. The high-speed ticker tape was late three times during the morning in its reports of floor transactions.

Cloudy business prospects, concern about Russia, tax loss selling and margin calls were among factors mentioned as contributing to the market weakness.

Oils, coppers and some aircrafts took a beating.

Toy Causes Panic

HOBART, Tasmania (AP)—A toy rocket threw the Tasmanian capital into a panic last night. It exploded high over the city in a shower of sparks just as the Soviet satellite was scheduled to cross the sky.

Switchboards of newspapers and radio stations were jammed with calls from people who believed the Red moon was about to crash.

The fake satellite was a student's joke.

Rummage Sale

A rummage sale sponsored by the Service Club and Endracht Guild of the Fair Street Reformed Church will be held at the church assembly room Thursday and Friday, Oct. 17 and 18 from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m.

'Moon' Maintains Under Fire for Case Handling

ALBANY (AP)—The sheriff of Saratoga County today stood accused by a state investigator of "serious neglect" in the investigation of the hanging murder of an 11-year-old boy, at first listed as an accident.

Sheriff Wesley E. Devoe said he had no immediate comment on the report issued last night by Gov. Harriman's acting investigation commissioner, Arthur L. Reuter. Devoe said he wanted time to read the report.

The Democratic governor, who has the power to remove Devoe, said he would take no official action against the sheriff. Harriman noted that Devoe was up for reelection next month. The sheriff is a Republican.

The boy, Peter Curran, was found July 20 with his hands bound, hanging from a tree near his home in Ballston Lake. State police were called into the case Aug. 10 and arrested Donald Smith, 23, of Ballston Lake on Aug. 25. Smith is awaiting trial on indictments charging first-degree murder and first-degree sodomy in the boy's death.

Before Smith was arrested, Ballston Lake residents publicly protested the official handling of the case and disputed the finding of accidental death.

Reuter said the sheriff's "failure to call upon the state police promptly to assist or take over the investigation was inexcusable."

Russia got her satellite into the air first. The United States plans some test firings in December and the launching of fully instrumented satellites in March.

No Competition
Poloskov contended there had been "no special competition" with the United States to send out the first moonlet. He said that when American scientists study the orbit of the Russian sphere, "they may have enough data to make changes in the plans for theirs."

He also said the satellite the United States hopes to launch "certainly will give more information than ours—that is, the first one."

But Poloskov said the American satellite "will give less information than our next one." He said he could not give any exact data on it.

Sputnik Has Toy World in Whirl, Santa on Satellite

NEW YORK (AP)—Retailers, stocked to the hilt with Christmas toys, are in something of a tizzy over Sputnik.

Even Santa Claus has changed his plans. In Allentown, Pa., Hess Brothers department store is making a last-minute switch in arrangements for its annual Christmas party. Instead of gliding down the Allentown fairgrounds in a helicopter, Santa will make a dramatic appearance aboard a motorized satellite.

"Our designers are working on it now," says the store.

Rush at Macy's

Macy's New York department store is doing what it calls a "real rush job" on a new section in the toy department completely devoted to interplanetary space.

"We've pushed up our plans," explains a store official. "We hope to have the space toy section ready this weekend."

Not to be outdone, Gimbel Bros. is running full-page newspaper ads proclaiming: "Not even the Russians have this satellite launcher or sky sweeper."

Sales Boosted

In the first week of its stellar gyrations, Sputnik has brought about a veritable boom in sales of binoculars, telescopes and science fiction.

Bamberger's department store in Newark advised newspaper readers via full-page ads to "watch for the world's first satellite Monday" when Sputnik is scheduled to streak across the Newark skies. To make the watching easier, Bamberger's offers a full line of spy glasses.

Book stores reported a demand for books and treatises dealing with interplanetary flight. Favorites include a one-time "Book-of-the-Month Club selection, "Exploration of Space" by British scientist Arthur C. Clark, and Arthur S. Locke's "Principles of Guided Missile Design."

Sputnik has even affected phonograph record sales. In heavy demand right now is the recording "Sounds from Outer Space."

New Phone ...

viously held this rate to 6 per cent.

In New York City, company president Keith S. McHugh said in a statement that the company was "keenly disappointed that the commission cut our rate request so sharply, but we are glad to have a decision, for any rate relief helps."

McHugh said New York Telephone would be able to keep only half of what it had won in a four-year fight because "52 cents of each additional dollar must be paid to the federal government in taxes."

New York Telephone had proposed to increase monthly charges on business phones by $1.50, on party lines by 65 cents and on private home phones by 50 cents. In addition, it had proposed an increase of seven million dollars a year on long-distance calls within the state. That was disallowed completely.

The PSC said there would be minor exceptions to the 35-cent and $1 limits on the boosts for home and business phones, but it could not pinpoint where they might be.

NEW YORK — American husbands sometimes have been accused of being "weekend daddies," who leave to wives the task of rearing their young."This just isn't so," said Mrs.
Rollin Brown of Los Angeles, the titular head of the nation's 43,000
Parent-Teacher Associations."Fathers are becoming more and more interested in school problems, and men now make up more than a third of our membership of more than 10 million. Several state P. T. A. groups now are headed by men.U. S. Father Tops
"They are particularly active and effective in the fields of school safety, legislation and juvenile protection. So far as interest in the education of his children is concerned, the American father is the best in the world."He not only wants to see that they have the best — he is doing something about it."Mrs. Brown, a vivacious, gray-haired, green-eyed grandmother, is president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers (the local groups are called P. T. A.'s), which this year is celebrating its 60th anniversary.The organization has been militant in innumerable educational crusades, but remained always politically nonpartisan, nonsectarian and noncommercial.Campaign for Best
"We don't campaign against anybody; we campaign for what we feel is best," explained Mrs.
Brown, whose post (it is unpaid) will require her to travel 25,000 miles this year.The organization, which hopes to enroll its 11 millionth member this year (average annual dues: 50 cents), has P. T. A. chapters dotted not only throughout the United States, but also in Hawaii, Alaska, Europe, Mexico, Saudi Arabia, the Virgin Islands, and such farflung outposts as Labrador, Okinawa and Formosa."There are more than 60,000
American school children now in the European theater alone," pointed out Mrs. Brown.Endless Task
After six decades of steady battling to get U. S. kids a better educational break, P. T. A. officials realize their task, while not hopeless, is endless."One problem leads to another," said Mrs. Brown cheerfully. "Our membership, of course, is constantly changing. Most parents, after their own children are grown, drop out of P. T. A. work."But that means we're not static.
Younger parents join in, and that means fresh minds to attack new problems."More Than 600 Islands
New Guinea is composed of more than 600 islands. Lying near the equator, its climate is hot and wet throughout the year.
It is a trust territory administered by Australia.

NEW YORK — We're approaching the week when the television net works make their biggest pitch of the new season for the attention of the viewing audience.Thus far the season's new programs have in general been greeted by critical jeers and without audible praise. Variety, the trade publication of show business, has called the season a dud.Variety Show Era
The programming pattern has emerged quickly and is apparent to the public. It is, above all, the era of the variety show. A computation—give or take one or two for error—shows that there are now 63 regular variety shows appearing each week on the three networks.It is, next, the era of the western. Computation—and it's really difficult to keep these matters straight—reveals 26 westerns.Ignoring these general trends for the time being, here are some of the special things television will bring the home audience:
Britain's Queen Elizabeth II definitely will be TV's queen of the week. Newspaper listings should be consulted for exact times and channels, but TV coverage begins with the arrival of the royal family in Ottawa tomorrow. Coverage of the queen in Canada will continue Sunday and Monday. On Thursday you may view her arrival in Washington,
D. C.Sunday is quite a day. "Wide World" (NBC-TV, 4 p. m.)
will try—and "try" must be emphasized—to glimpse the Russian satellite in a remote pickup from the University of Colorado cor-onagraph station at Climax, Colo.
(Altitude: 11,320 feet.)Three big, expensive special shows stand back to back on Sunday. On NBC-TV at 6:30 p. m.,
Mickey Rooney, Walter Slezak and Fran Allison appear in a musical and verse adaptation of

Shokan

SHOKAN — Former Shokan residents here Saturday included Albert Kuehnappel of Union City, N. J., who about 20 years ago operated the Orchard Rest in the west end of the village. He took over the place from Frank Myers whose son, Arthur, also lives in Union City.

John Carroll, Kingston young man who travels for a tobacco company, was a caller here Friday.

The F. Costa family of Woodstock have moved into their new ranch style home along Route 28 at Ashokan. The building, started in September, was put up in record-breaking time for this area.

Joining the increasing number of visitors from Connecticut were Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Clark who were on their way home from a leisurely trip to Gettysburg, Pa., and New Jersey. The couple sold their large farm and now have an antique shop near Gale's Ferry in the New London area.

Birthdays falling October 15 include that of Mrs. Bernard Casablanca of Washington Heights, who with her husband and son, Vincent, maintain a summer home in the village center. Mrs. Casablanca attended Barnard College and studied music at Columbia University.

Hazel Schryver, a retired school teacher residing near Rhinebeck, was a caller at the local free museum Saturday. Miss Snyder was a friend of Beatrice and Rose Kemble when the Dr. William Kemble family lived in the old village of West Shokan.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ruckert motored to New York Friday to see Mrs. Ruckert's mother, Anna Trump, who was a hospital patient following a major operation. Mrs. Trump, now in her eighties, formerly visited Shokan upon many occasions.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Middagh of Kingston were Shokan callers Sunday. Mr. Middagh, a Freeman employee, is a descendant of Samuel Middagh, one of the first settlers in that section of Marletown which is now a part of the Town of Olive.

Martin M. Christiansen of Ruby was here Saturday in company with friends from Creek Locks.

Also in town Saturday was Harold Van Allen of Old Hurley and his father-in-law, Albert Brown of Richmond, Va. Van Allen, active in First Baptist Church work in Kingston.

Gerald Westcott, uptown Kingston hearing aid specialist, and wife were in town Monday. Also here Monday was Herbert Lane, one of Willow's oldest residents. Lane, who still retains his model T Ford which he used up to a couple years ago, now drives a car of more recent vintage.

Visitors to the museum Tuesday included George D. Brenner, Springfield Gardens, L. I. who operates an 18-unit furnished cottage colony at Olivera in the Town of Shandaken. Mr. Brenner is fixing up his social center in the low ragged pollen count sector of Ulster with

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

Receiving an interesting item from Mrs. William C. Prull of 24 Van Buren Street and explanation that she found it in her attic in an old school book and thinks it was given to the children before 1910.

It is a maroon colored card about 3 by 4 inches on one side of which is printed in big letters "Tag Me I'm It" and also says (See other side.) The other side reads: "Special For The Children. Little Iva, the youngest member of the G. M. Brown Company, will hold a reception at the close of the matinee, Saturday, Oct. 25, at 3 p. m., and wants to meet all the school children of Kingston. A bill particularly pleasing to the little ones will be presented. Five cents and one potato will be the charge of admission and she will give to the child who brings the largest potato a prize, a watch to the boy, and a ring to the girl. Be sure your name is written plainly and attached to the potato. The potatoes will be given to the poorest family in town so you bring as many as you like. Star Theatre, near West Shore Station." Perhaps folks remember this party, and can tell us more about it.

Not only is Kingston represented in Washington, D. C., through our Kingston born artist, John Vanderlyn, but also through the Freer Gallery. It is said, Charles Freer, the donor of this Gallery and collection worth some $7,000,000 was born in Kingston in 1856. He made railroad history and a fortune in this work in Detroit and in construction work. He devoted the later part of his life to collecting works of art from all parts of the world. He offered this collection to the government in 1904. In 1906 Congress voted a site of ground of the Smithsonian Institute. After that Mr. Freer trebled his collection and increased his appropriation for

Church Membership

PHILADELPHIA — Although official figures show only 103 million Americans are affiliated with churches, a leading religious journal says that the number actually surpasses this by 25 million—for a total of 128 million out of the country's 170-million population. The magazine, Presbyterian Life, in a detailed analysis of membership computation systems, says additional church-affiliated persons are under age 13, but not counted under policies of some denominations.

Lutherans to Merge

CHICAGO — Four Lutheran denominations have agreed tentatively on a joint doctrinal confession and several other basic matters in planning a four-way merger that will bring into being a new Lutheran church with nearly three million members.

Federal Courts Less Likely to Permit Delays

Little Rock Outcome May Signify Quicker Segregation Termination

EDITOR'S NOTE: It is admittedly a long road to integration in the South. But often it is not so much the length of the road as the course it may take that gives thoughtful people pause. This last of five articles on Little Rock and what it means is a look into the future.

By REILMAN MORIN

LITTLE ROCK — What now for Little Rock?

What now for integration elsewhere in the south?

It may well be that the whole complexion of that great social struggle has been changed by President Eisenhower and Gov. Orval Faubus.

Shows Full Feeling

The thunderous September events in the city showed the breadth and depth of the feeling against integration. Most people applauded Faubus for using the Arkansas national guard to keep Negroes out of Central High School. Then came the riots and federal troops.

Before, most people thought of the problem primarily in terms of integration versus segregation. They knew, of course, that the Supreme Court had declared segregation unconstitutional.

But they did not think of it as a question of obeying or defying the court's order, of complying with the law or flouting it.

Precedent Set

A precedent has been set. Violence may be answered, again and again, by the arrival of federal troops. Short of civil war, what resistance is left? What could it accomplish?

Thus Little Rock has clarified the issue, laid it squarely in the lap of every parent with a child in a segregated school.

For this reason, integrationists in Little Rock and elsewhere contend that Faubus and the rioters inadvertently dealt segregation a mortal blow. They think he has lopped years off the revolutionary process.

They expect to see a stronger civil rights bill enacted in Congress next year, and they believe the federal courts will be less likely to permit delays in integration.

As for Faubus the question seems to be: How does he get out of this impasse without surrender and loss of face?

Seemed Confident

On the morning he left for Newport, R. I., to meet with President Eisenhower, he seemed supremely confident.

Neither the federal court injunction against him on Sept. 20, the riots on Sept. 23, nor the arrival of federal troops Sept. 24 seemed to shake him.

Then came the efforts of the four southern governors to work out a compromise.

Later, having read Faubus' version of the understanding, the White House said the deal was off. At a news conference the next day, Faubus did not look so confident. Several times, fire showed through his usual calm as he answered questions.

"What do they want to do, write my statement for me?" He asked, raising his voice. He did not hesitate to accuse the White House of "double talk."

Meanwhile, reports circulated that he was planning to call the Legislature into special session. Through that body, he could close all the schools in Arkansas.

Integrationists hoped he would take that action. They said he would alienate much of the support he now has around the state.

Called Trial Balloon

When nothing developed, Faubus' critics said he had sent up a "trial balloon" and found the members of the Legislature lukewarm to the idea of a special session.

There the position rests.

Meanwhile, Central High School is open. The nine Negro students are going to classes under guard. Attendance rose daily during the first week.

Students and teachers describe conditions inside the school as being about as normal as they could be in such circumstances.

One morning, soon after the paratroopers took stations around Central High, former Congressman Laurie Battle of Alabama appeared inside the barricades. Reporters crowded around and one asked him, "are you trying to get some idea of the effect of this situation on integration in Alabama?"

Battle replied quietly: "Mister, there just isn't going to be any integration in Alabama."

But the impact of the Little Rock story on the rest of the south is still to be measured.

MRS. ROBERT J. CONLON (Sterling photo)

West Hurley Church Forms Background For Avery - Conlon Wedding October 5

In St. John's Church, West Hurley, Miss Anita Louise Avery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Avery of Kingston, exchanged marriage vows with Robert James Conlon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Conlon of Stony Hollow on Saturday, Oct. 5, at 2 p. m.

The Rev. Jeremiah F. Nemecek, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

William Avery, brother of the bride, gave her in marriage. She wore a pink chiffon gown in waltz length styled with a long torso, shirred bodice and portrait neckline. A pink halo veil was gathered to a crown of nylon braid accented with seed pearls. The bride carried a prayer book with white roses.

Miss Joan Conlon, sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor. She wore a waltz length gown of romance blue chiffon styled with a shirred bodice, tiny cap sleeves, boat neckline and a blue cap of silk crystalles. She carried a nosegay of pink pompons and roses.

William Reilly of West Hurley served as best man.

A reception was held at Hilltop Inn, for approximately 85 guests.

The bride and bridegroom both attended Kingston High School. Mrs. Conlon is employed by Dixon and Rippele Inc., Saugerties. Her husband is employed by Bernard Smith of Stony Hollow.

For traveling to Niagara Falls, the bride wore a red sheath dress with black accessories and a corsage of white roses.

The couple will make their home at Morgan Hill.

WHO IS CALLING?

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please settle the following discussion: A friend of mine strongly feels that everyone making a telephone call, personal or business, should identify herself to the one answering on the other end whether or not she is known to that person, before the person being called is brought to the telephone, and that if she hasn't the courtesy to do this, she should be asked who is calling. I feel definitely that such identification is quite unnecessary when the caller is unknown to the person answering the phone, and indeed, if the person answering asks who is calling (unless authorized to do so by the person being called) it implies only curiosity and is impolite. What do you have to say about this?

Answer: The person calling

Going on a Boy's Invitation

Dear Mrs. Post: My boy friend asked me to go to his grandmother's birthday party. She will be eighty years old and several members of her family are giving a party for her. I have never met his grandmother and I feel it would be wrong for me to go especially since it will be mostly a family party. He insists that I go. Will you please tell me if it would be proper to go. Also, if I go, should I take a present?

Answer: In this case you may go on his invitation if you wish to. You should not take a present.

Exchanging a Useless Gift

Dear Mrs. Post: I've been given a very fine pen and pencil set by a group of friends in a club. I have no use whatever for this as I already have two in use and another in reserve. Could I exchange this at the store at which it was brought for something I do need?

Answer: It would be senseless to keep the set you are never going to use. Exchange it and if ever anyone of those who gave it to you notices that you do not use it, I am sure they will understand when you explain.

Small weddings are popular.

Mrs. Post has written leaflet E-8, "Today's Typical Wedding," describing the procedure. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, care of The Freeman, P.O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Miss Harriet Konjas Is Wed October 6 In Double Ring Ceremony at Holy Cross

MRS. THEMISTOCLES G. APOSPOROS (Pennington photo)

Miss Harriet Konjas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Konjas, became the bride of Themistocles G. Aposporos, son of Mrs. George Aposporos of Poughkeepsie, Sunday, Oct. 6, at 4 p. m. in the Holy Cross Church.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Father Paleologos, pastor of St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church, Newburgh.

Walter Kidd was at the organ. Baskets of white mums and gladioli decorated the church for the occasion.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of candlelight slipper satin fashioned with a bodice of peau de ange lace, rounded neckline and long sleeves tapered to points over the wrists. The bouffant floor length skirt swept back into a full cathedral length train. A Juliet bridal cap embroidered with seed pearls secured the heirloom veil of lace draped in Madonna fashion. She carried white orchids and mums fashioned in the shape of a ring.

Miss Youla Papastrat of Poughkeepsie was the maid of honor. She wore a gown of silk rose chiffon fashioned in Grecian lines with scooped neckline and full flowing floor length skirt. The waistline of the gown was encircled with a velvet cummerbund. Her headpiece consisted of a halo band of crystal pleated tulle with velvet leaves. She carried a ring of white mums and red roses.

Serving as bridesmaids were Miss Marlene Larios of Kingston, Miss Paula Aposporos, niece of the bridegroom from Detroit, Mich., and Miss Anna Nichols of Middletown. Their gowns were styled identically to that worn by the honor attendant. They carried rings of white mums. Cousin of the bride, Miss Mary Stephanie Corsones, served as flower girl. She was attired in the same type of gown as worn by the attendants and carried a ring of white mums.

James Konjas, brother of the bride, served as best man. Ushers were Theodore Aposporos, brother of the bridegroom; Nicholas Kustas, Poughkeepsie; Lee Konjas, brother of the bride; Joseph Damico, Alexandria, Va.; Master Stephan Larios, cousin of the bride, was the child ring-bearer.

A reception was held at the Wiltwyck Country Club for approximately 200 guests. Music was provided by George Strates and his orchestra of New York City.

The bride, who has resided with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. S. Larios of 318 Washington Avenue, is a graduate of Kingston High School, class of 1956. She was employed by IBM prior to her marriage.

The bridegroom graduated with an AB degree in political science from Vassar College. He received his masters in languages in June, 1957 at the University of Madrid, Spain. He served with the Navy Medical Corps in the Pacific during the second world war. Mr. Aposporos is now employed by the International Society for Aid of Greek Seamen in New York City.

The bride's traveling ensemble consisted of a beige two-piece suit with tangerine hat, gloves and scarf.

The couple plan to make their home in New York City when they return from their wedding trip to Florida.

Fall Fashion Show In Poughkeepsie to Feature Music Group

The combined voices of the nine LaFalce Brothers will be featured entertainment at the Fall Fashion Show to be presented by the Mid-Hudson Catholic Club on October 23, at the Poughkeepsie High School. William J. Rieser, general coordinator, announced today.

The LaFalce Brothers are well known in music circles throughout the Mid-Hudson area.

The sons of Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso LaFalce, 45 Fitchett Street, Poughkeepsie, the LaFalce Brothers have been singing together for many years. They first began their singing career, learning the secrets of harmony in the choir of St. Peter's Church, Poughkeepsie.

Active in many charitable programs, they gained poise and experience in numerous musical productions, radio and television. As winners of the Arthur Godfrey Talent Scout program in 1954, they appeared for three consecutive days on the Arthur Godfrey Morning Show. They have also appeared on the Herb Schriner show, Ted Steeles' "Teenage Bandstand," The Robert Alda Show, Paul Brenner's Show, and recently with Sam Levenson on the "Two for the Money." They have made guest appearances with Lena Horne, Red Buttons, Jinx Faulkenburg, Charlie Applewhite and Lenny Hayton.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Fastenau of Los Banos, Calif., announce the birth of a son, born October 8. Mrs. Fastenau is the former Carol Kelsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kelsch of 50 West Pierpont Street.

Free-lances originally were roaming knights and men-at-arms who sold their services to various lords.

Jacqueline Gump, John G. Cullen Wedding Announced

Miss Jacqueline Jean Gump, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard E. Gump of Oakland, Calif., became the bride of John Gavin Cullen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gavin A. Cullen of San Jose, Calif., Sept. 28, at 8 p. m. in the First Presbyterian Church, Oakland, Calif.

The bridegroom's father is the former general manager of IBM in Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hobbs 3rd of Kingston, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom, attended the wedding.

The Rev. Ernest Vollman of Oakland officiated. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of handclipped French lace, bell shaped and floor length. It was styled with a sequin trimmed lace panel front, Sabrina neckline and long pointed sleeves. The skirt terminated in a chapel train. A fingertip veil of French illusion was gathered to a pearl and sequin trimmed half-crown. She carried a white Bible with double white orchids and white stephanotis.

Mrs. Jack Tyler served as matron of honor and Miss Claire Hightower was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Miss Marianne Cullen of San Jose, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Anne Garland of San Jose and Miss Helen Starling of Oakland. They all wore turquoise chiffon gowns in ballerina length with matching hats and shoes. The two honor attendants carried white stephanotis and pink spider chrysanthemums with love-knots. The bridesmaids carried crescent type pink spider chrysanthemums.

Thomas A. Cullen served as best man for his brother. Ushers included Millard A. Gump, brother of the bride, Clark Jones, Loren Heath and David Humphreys, all of San Jose.

Following the church ceremony, a reception was held at Lake Merritt Hotel, Oakland, Calif.

The bride, who is an undergraduate at San Jose State College, is a member of Delta Zeta Sorority.

Her husband is a graduate of Syracuse University and a member of Zeta Psi fraternity. He is now employed by IBM in San Jose where his father is general manager. His job is that of engineering change analyzer.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Highlands Inn, Carmel, Calif., after the reception. When they return, they will make their home at 2511 Skylark Drive, San Jose, Calif.

Youth Fellowship Meeting Planned

Bigger, Better Homes Desires of Women Now at Convention

WASHINGTON — Houses with bigger kitchens, more bathrooms and equipment easier to fix appeared today to be the goal of a gathering of American housewives.

Furthermore, if they have a choice between having such homes and gleaming big cars, many delegates said they will take the houses.

These views were registered in discussions by many of the 100 delegates from 45 states attending the Congress on Better Living, now in its third day.

But if the ladies were in agreement on more spaciousness, they differed strongly on the design of their ideal homes.

Mrs. Delores Zink of Chagrin Falls, Ohio, said she would like a home that was very modern, even though she and her artist husband live in a house 30 years old.

In contrast, Mrs. Richard A. Taylor of Zanesville, Ohio, wife of an electrical equipment installer, said she preferred something in between contemporary and conventional design.

Others liked the idea of split level houses, but not necessarily contemporary.

Symington Hits Benson Talk on Lower Supports

SIoux FALLS, S. D. (AP) — The theory that lower farm price supports will cut production is unsound and Agriculture Department officials know it, Sen. Symington (D-Mo) declared today.

Symington scored Secretary of Agriculture Benson in a speech prepared for the national corn-picking contest.

Benson Egg Target

Benson yesterday was the target of egg-throwers as he restated his appeal for flexible price supports from the same platform.

Symington referred to Benson and "his theoreticians" and said: "They know that for the 'lower price—lower production' theory to work, there must be freedom and mobility, as specifically stated in the classic textbook examples.

"But out in the real world, out on the farms of America, there is no such mobility, and they know that as well as we do.

"How can a dairy farmer, with a $30,000 investment in a foundation herd, a milking parlor, a grade A bulk tank system and a silo, switch to some other form of farming?"

Actually, the Missouri senator asserted, lower prices only increase production because:

"Farmers know that, as prices drop, all they can do is work even harder to produce more to get the dollars they need."

Benson escaped the barrage of eggs aimed at him yesterday.

The eggs came as he was being introduced by Gov. Joe Foss.

Benson, whose hat was splattered by a thrown egg as it lay on the speaker's platform, did not mention the incident in his speech.

In later conversation he said nothing like it ever had happened to him before and called it un-American.

Maynard Gudahl, a state patrolman, said Maynard Rankly, 21, a farmer from Volga, S. D., admitted he and four others had thrown the eggs.

Foss for Prosecution

"We weren't getting any attention... We've written him letters and we figured this was one way of getting his attention," the officer quoted Rankly as saying.

The egg throwers were not held but Foss said he had ordered agents of the state attorney general to press for their prosecution.

A titter ran through the crowd, estimated by state police at about 7,000 when the eggs were thrown. But the levity subsided as Benson started to speak.

Benson said that broader markets and reduced surpluses rather than price supports are the answer to increased farm income. He urged greater exports, saying that "You can't sit back and let others take your markets from you, you have got to fight hard for them."

There was only a smattering of applause when he finished.

Reds Surrender San Marino Rule

SAN MARINO (AP)—San Marino's Communist government surrendered its power to a rival anti-Communist regime today, ending 12 years of Red rule over this tiny republic.

The Communist leadership announced capitulation in a proclamation read in San Marino's village square.

The proclamation said the Communist government had "decided to give up its useless resistance as a sacrifice to the welfare of the state."

The proclamation did not say precisely when the Reds would hand over power to the new "white" government. But Communist leaders and their supporters were already seen leaving the government palace they have held since the teapot revolution ruptured Oct. 1.

A coalition government headed by San Marino Christian Democrats is expected to take over. They formed a provisional government—already recognized by the United States—at the start of the upheaval.

Haney Being Acclaimed New Miracle Man of Baseball

THE CHAMPIONSHIP GOES TO MILWAUKEE—Jubilant Milwaukee Braves swarm around pitcher Lew Burdette after last Yankee batter was retired in seventh World Series game to give Braves a 5-0 win and the world championship. Identifiable are catcher Del Rice (7) and first baseman Frank Torre (14). (AP Wirephoto)

Brave Manager Gains Fame By Series Triumph

NEW YORK (AP)—Milwaukee's miracle is now complete. The miracle man is Fred (Merlin) Haney, with Lew Burdette his magic wand.

Just five years after the franchise shift from Boston to what yesterday must have been the most hysterical baseball city in the world, the Braves rose from a frustrated, badly disorganized seventh-place team to proud, powerful world-championship outfit with a future as bright as the new Russian satellite.

Make no mistake about it. This was a standout team that came from behind repeatedly and overcame crippling handicaps to dethrone a good New York Yankee team in seven sizzling World Series games. This was a young team, too. The starting Braves' nine that shut out the Yankees 5-0 yesterday behind the remarkable seven-hit pitching of Burdette averaged 26.4 years to 31.4 for the American League champions.

Confidence Immeasurable
The confidence gained in defeating the storied and highly respected Yankees, especially in their own back yard, is immeasurable. The Braves always had the horses. What they lacked was experience and confidence. They've got both now, including a chip on the shoulder that comes from the knowledge that they are champions of the world.

In addition, the Braves are a highly efficient organization, boasting one of the strongest minor league farm system and owning some of the outstanding young players in the country. No wonder Frank Lane, general manager of the runner-up St. Louis Cardinals remarked ruefully yesterday:

"This was the year to beat the Braves. Next year I'm afraid they'll be unstoppable."

It is not difficult to view the Braves as a championship team for years to come. Henry Aaron, whom Haney has described as another Rogers Hornsby, is only 23. Wes Covington is 25. Eddie Mathews is 26. So is Frank Torre. Bill Bruton, Bob Hazle and Del Crandall are 26. Felix Mantilla is 23. Johnny Logan and Joe Adcock, who have been around for a long time, are only 30. Among the pitchers, only Warren Spahn, at 36, can be called old, and he appears indestructible.

Oddity Gives Chance
Oddly enough, it was Spahn's illness that gave his roomie and buddy, Burdette, an opportunity to pitch his third game of the series in the finale, and his second in four days.

How Burdette fared in the final game, and in the entire series, for that matter, is now one of the more glorious pages in World Series history.

The 30-year-old righthander from Nitro, W. Va., who now makes his home in Sarasota, Fla., not only became the first starter since Cleveland's Stan Coveleskie to win three games in one series, but he also became the first hurler in 52 years to turn in two shutouts. Imagine that! Fifty-two years. And who was the last one? None other than the immortal Christy Mathewson, who blanked the Philadelphia Athletics three times in 1905.

Cold figures don't tell half the story of Burdette's truly remarkable pitching performance. The tall, sinewy righthander walked only one batter—and that was intentional. He was rarely behind the hitters as only four Yankees reached the three ball count. Not until two out in the ninth inning did a Yankee runner reach third. With the exception of Hank Bauer's leadoff double, no extra base hit was made off him.

24 Scoreless Innings
Burdette wound up with 24 consecutive scoreless innings against the American League champs. All this with only two days rest. No wonder his agent, Frank Scott, disclosed today that the rubber-armed redhead, whose 1957 salary was only $15,000, stands to earn around $20,000 in personal appearances and endorsements during the coming winter.

Burdette was not the whole show, however. He received magnificent support from his teammates, especially Mathews at third base. He received timely hitting support from Aaron, Hazle, Crandall and Mathews.

It was Mathews, a batting bust in the first three games, who delivered the key hit. It was a third-inning double to right off starter and loser Don Larsen which drove in the first two Milwaukee runs. It was Aaron who hit safely in every game, drove in a run yesterday, and wound up leading all hitters on both teams with .393. It was Hazle, who started the crushing four-run rally in the third with a hit, his first of the series. And it was Crandall, who unlimbered the coup de grace with a home run into the left field seats. It was the staunch Braves' defense, however, that surprised the Yankees the most. The scouting reports had led them to believe that the Braves were a slow, clumsy, lack-lustre outfit in the field, devoid of fire and imagination. The Braves proved they were anything but that. Mathews played a spectacular third base from start to finish. Logan's short-fielding was not as sensational, but equally effective. Johnny accepted 38 chances flawlessly, several of them of the spectacular variety. He participated in half of the 10 Milwaukee double plays.

The University of North Dakota football teams have had four unbeaten seasons. In 13 campaigns the team lost only one game each year.

READY FOR PIONEERS—John (Red) Peck, left, and Ray Spadafora will be in the starting lineup Saturday at tackles for Kingston High when it takes on Poughkeepsie in the DUSO League. The contest will be played at the Pioneer's new field on Forbes Street at 2 p. m. (Freeman photo)

Maroon Keeps Rolling

Hoopie Picks Maroon To Trounce Pioneers

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE
Expert Point Spread Analyst

Har-rumph! Um-kump! Hak-kaff! Notice how drafty the rooms are these chilly October mornings? Brisk, eh? Egad, Yes!

Mm! Oh, yes, about football. Veritably the life of a forecaster is fraught with hazardous imponderables, gentle readers! Take any given Saturday—a gust of wind suddenly whips across the goal posts and there goes your extra point and victory.

Or a halfback hears his sweetheart's voice, runs over nine deadly tacklers while 70,000 cheer. Again, a fullback's grandmother may be ailing and he forgets where the pigskin is.

Nonetheless, your correspondent has lost not one whit of his boldness and elan. He gives you two powerful upsets this week-end by the closest of scores—and watch for that gust of wind—Saugerties over Liberty and Beacon over Wappingers Falls.

For the chalk players, it's Kingston to make it 13 in a row at the expense of Poughkeepsie, Ontario in a cakewalk against Walkill, Highland in a squeaker with Clarkstown and New York Military Academy by the smallest of margins over Port Jervis.

And there you have it, six of the top games selected perfectly, that is, a-hor to be sure! On with the scores and some other juicy selections.

Kingston 32, Poughkeepsie 6
Saugerties 18, Liberty 13
Ontario 33, Walkill 6
Beacon 14, Wappingers Falls 6
Highland 19, Clarkstown 12
NYMA 20, Port Jervis 14
Newburgh 14, Nott Terrace 7
Arlington 26, Roosevelt 12
Pawling 12, New Paltz 6
Rah, Rah! The college boys also have their day. Shockers galore will be the order of business.

Also three hits by Yogi Berra in leading Yanks to a 3-2 victory.

SEVENTH GAME—Burdette's comeback after two days rest and Eddie Mathews' two-run double and series ending play on Moose Skowron's drive down the third base line as the Braves won 5-0.

FIRST GAME—Jerry Coleman's sixth inning squeeze bunt scoring Yogi Berra in the Yankees' 3-1 victory.

SECOND GAME—Wes Covington's running across-the-body catch of Bobby Shantz's left field drive in the second inning. Braves won 4-2.

THIRD GAME—Two home runs and four runs batted in by rookie Tony Kubek in Yanks' 12-3 victory.

FOURTH GAME—Elston Howard's 3-run homer in the ninth to boost the Yankees into a 4-4 tie and Eddie Mathews' two-run homer in the 10th for a 7-5 Milwaukee triumph after nippy Jones proved to the umpire he had been hit on the foot by exhibiting shoe polish on the back.

FIFTH GAME—Covington robbing Gil McDougald of an apparent homer in the fourth and Mathews' stab of Harry Simpson's high bounder to start an inning-ending double play in the same frame of a game won by the Braves 1-0 with Burdette pitching.

SIXTH GAME—Turley's 4-hit-ter, including fanning of Aaron and forcing Covington to hit into game-end double play after walking Mathews to start final inning.

High School Battles Pioneers Saturday for DUSO Top Spot

Possession of first place in the DUSO League will be at stake Saturday when Kingston High plays Poughkeepsie at the Pioneer's new field on Forbes Street. Kickoff time is 2 p. m.

That contest is one of 10 scheduled for area schoolboy gridders over the weekend. The slate is divided evenly between league and non-league contests.

Poughkeepsie holds first place in the early race with a 2-0 mark and the Maroon is second at 1-0. The Pioneers have tripped Middletown, 7-0, and Port Jervis, 13-9, plus Beacon, 34-0, the latter outside the circuit.

KHS After No. 13
Kingston also owns a league win over the Red Raiders, but by a more impressive margin, 38-6. The locals sandwiched that triumph between successes over Christian Brothers Academy (33-0) and New York Military Academy (18-12) and boast a three-year all-victory string of 12 games.

Two night encounters this evening launch activities. Liberty is at Saugerties and Newburgh at Nott Terrace.

The Saugerties skirmish at Cantine Filed holds more interest locally. The Sawyers have had rough going so far, winning once in three starts, and hope to get back on the right path against the Redskins. Game time is 8 o'clock.

Newburgh faces a stiff assignment in the Blue Devils at Schenectady Stadium. Nott Terrace is reported to be hitting its stride and pointing for the Goldbacks who are flu-ridden and under-manned. Newburgh's mark is one win and a tie while the Terracemen stand even at 1-1.

Other Games
Elsewhere Saturday, in loop competition, Ontario visits Walkill in the UCAL while Roosevelt opposes Arlington and Wappingers Falls at Beacon in the DUSL. The Arlington joust will be played at Poughkeepsie's Riverview Field.

Ontario is right off sound victories at the expense of Cornwall and Hunter-Tannersville and should be able to handle the Blue Devils without too much difficulty. Coach Ed Witko's Indians will be making their first circuit start and will be meeting a team that has dropped two straight in their first campaign of 11-man grid.

Arlington is a heavy favorite to lick FDR which is winless in two engagements. Fritz Jordan's eleven ranks right behind pace-setting Highland with a 2-0 slate and has an opportunity to tie for the top rung.

Wappingers will be looking to make it two straight in the DUSL against the Beaconites. Coach Tom Macrini's Fallsmen dumped FDR in their loop inaugural and tied Newburgh in their other start.

After First Win
Beacon is winless in three games—two in the league. Besides the Poughkeepsie pasting, the across-the-river gridmen have succumbed to Highland and Arlington.

As for Highland, it goes after victory No. 4 against Clarkstown at New City in Rockland county. Coach Bob Relyea's troops are the surprise club so far and should get past the Rams who share the cellar in their loop.

New Paltz, which has won two in a row, hosts Pawling in a pick 'em game. The Huguenots were thumped by Pine Plains in their opener, but have rebounded since then and topped Marlboro and Walkill.

Cornell Plays Syracuse in Upstate Feature

By BOB POWELL
SYRACUSE (AP)—Syracuse and Cornell renew football wars tomorrow at Schoellkopf Field in Ithaca in the feature attraction on the Upstate sports calendar.

Even Cornell Coach Lefty James concedes that the Orange are likely to win.

Colgate, in one of its two home appearances this season, meets Rutgers in Hamilton. Reports that the game would be cancelled because of illness at both campuses were denied by Colgate authorities.

The Syracuse-Cornell battle marks the first time the two have met since 1954. Tomorrow's game is expected to attract 25,000.

Syracuse has been rated a one-touchdown favorite on the basis of its new look—a power packed winged-T offense sprinkled with razzle-dazzle ball handling and an improved passing game.

Cornell boasts one of the East's speediest backs in Irv (Bo) Robertson, a senior from Philadelphia.

Champ Fights Draw
Paris (AP)—Philippine bantamweight champion Roger Caputo fought to a 10 round draw in a non-title fight last night.

260 Fair St., Kingston

Major Amos B. Hoople (Poughkeepsie version) is on the spot in Saturday's clash between the unbeaten gridiron forces of Kingston and Poughkeepsie.

The old school spirit and hometown loyalty dictates a Pioneer pick over Kingston. But the cold, hard facts say it is unlikely that the Bridge City eleven can trim Bill Burke's unbeaten but battered legends.

Deke Johnson, one of the long line of scintillating Johnsons, will be on the scene to haunt and harrass the Maroons but Kingston can offer much in rebuttal, including a fair to middling runner by the name of Hobie Armstrong.

The Pioneers know all about Hobie and probably fear him more than Kingston does Johnson. Both have unusual talents, although the feeling here is that no high school back in the area can touch the gifted, ex-Little League star.

To many who have watched Armstrong develop from a sensational 8-year-old Little League to one of Kingston High's all-time backfield greats his current successes come as no surprise. He displayed that extra quality that separates the great from the good the first day he donned his LL uniform.

Bud Culloton, who spent a few years with the Pittsburgh Pirates, was always a harsh judge of baseball talent. But we recall the former Kingston Colonial pitching great getting ecstatic about the exploits of an 8-year-old boy. He coached Hobie's first team. Hobie's sudden development as a football star surprised many folks who figured baseball was his orbit. We think his future greatness lies in football and an over-emphasis on baseball would do him more harm than good.

• Picking The Maroon:

The youngster is being subjected to a lot of pressure from many sides and his father, Nate Armstrong, will be fencing off college scouts like ants on a picnic sandwich when Hobie reaches his senior year, if they haven't already presented their credentials for a later visit.

We suspect Hobie is not overly impressed by press clippings and has the emotional stability to remain an unspoiled, unsullied football star and excellent student that he is for the remainder of his high school career. With the right kind of breaks he can make it big in college, too.

The Johnson boy from Poughkeepsie is quite a hunk of football player, but we like our boy and our team better. That's why we think, and Major Hoople agrees, Kingston will win Saturday.

• Flotsam and Jetsam:

Coach Ed Witko of Ontario Central is one football mentor sold on Maj. Hoople, the Old Blue. The triple threat on the ancient Neanderthal All Stars picked Ontario's first victory on the nose and was only one point off the second time around. There may be something to the rumor that the Old Boy has a summer shack in Boileville, egad! . . . Catskill Country Club has awarded a contract to build a $40,000 swimming pool on the club property and actual construction is expected to start within a few days. The pool is being built by Paddock Pool Builders, Inc. of Delmar, a company which has constructed swimming pools for other golf clubs, including Normanside, and Schuyler Meadows in the Albany area and Glens Falls Country Club. The pool will be wedge-shaped about 75 by 35 feet in dimension, with a smaller wading pool for children adjacent. Lt. Ronnie Scheffel of Fort Jackson expects his discharge within 30 days and is expected to spend some time in Kingston. . . . City bowling loses one of its top personalities with the departure of Whitey Crispell to Hollywood Beach, Fla., where he expects to go into business and establish permanent residence.

Jewelers Test HVBL Leaders in Local Contest

Saccaman Jewelers, locked in a four-way tie for seventh place in the Hudson Valley bowling league, entertain the league leading Middletown Merchants (12-3) Saturday night at the Bowlero.

Jones Dairy, second with a 10-5 record, travel to last-place Ellenville Shanahans (4-11). In other matches involving local teams, The Five Merchants (8-7) travel to Walden Merchants (5-10) and Prospect Dairies

(6-9) tangle with Liberty Triangles (9-6) in Kingston.

Latest individual average ratings show Kingston keglers holding down the first three places. Jerry Oster leads with 205.9; Ken Joseph has 204.3 and Chris Gallo is batting at 201.1. Jones Dairy holds both team marks of 1091 and 3142.

Series Notes

By JIM KENSIL

NEW YORK (AP) — Milwaukee's Braves not only took the last end of the World Series split, but as individuals they also were looking forward today to a bright green future. Just about every player on the new world champions has a talking point when contract-signing time comes around.

But aside from the youngsters — Tony Kubek, Bobby Richardson and Jerry Lumpe — and the man who became a topflight pitcher this year, Bob Turley, most of the Yankees have little going for them. In fact, New York's General Manager George Weiss undoubtedly has some pay cuts in mind.

Lew Burdette, that righthander who showed up three times, too often as far as the Yankees were concerned, was doing more than looking ahead. He was talking in the Braves' dressing room after pitching yesterday's 5-0 victory that clinched the series for Milwaukee. Lou Piniell, Braves' owner, was hugging Burdette and a photographer was taking their picture. "Send me a dozen of those prints for contract signing next spring," Lew told the photographer while looking at the Braves' boss.

Red Schoendienst, whose 1956 salary was set by the New York (That's what they were then) Giants will probably vie with Burdette for the biggest pay hike. Incidentally, Schoendienst's absence from the line-up because of a groin injury, was emphasized in the first inning yesterday when the Braves, for the second straight day, mopped up a rundown play that would probably have been an out had the redhead been quarter-backing the defense.

And lest we forget amid the publicity given to the Yanks' ailing Mickey Mantle and Bill Skowron, the Braves played the series without Billy Bruton, the regular centerfielder. The Braves' first string first baseman, Joe Adcock, was still not physically sound, and the Braves' ace lefthander, Warren Spahn, was a flu victim after winning the fourth game of the series.

Logart Faces Miceli in 10

DETROIT (AP) Joe Miceli, a veteran of 89 fights who quit the game not long ago only to decide upon a comeback, gets a chance to knock Cuban Isaac Logart out of the top welterweight rankings tonight when the two fighters meet in a 10-rounder at Olympic Stadium.

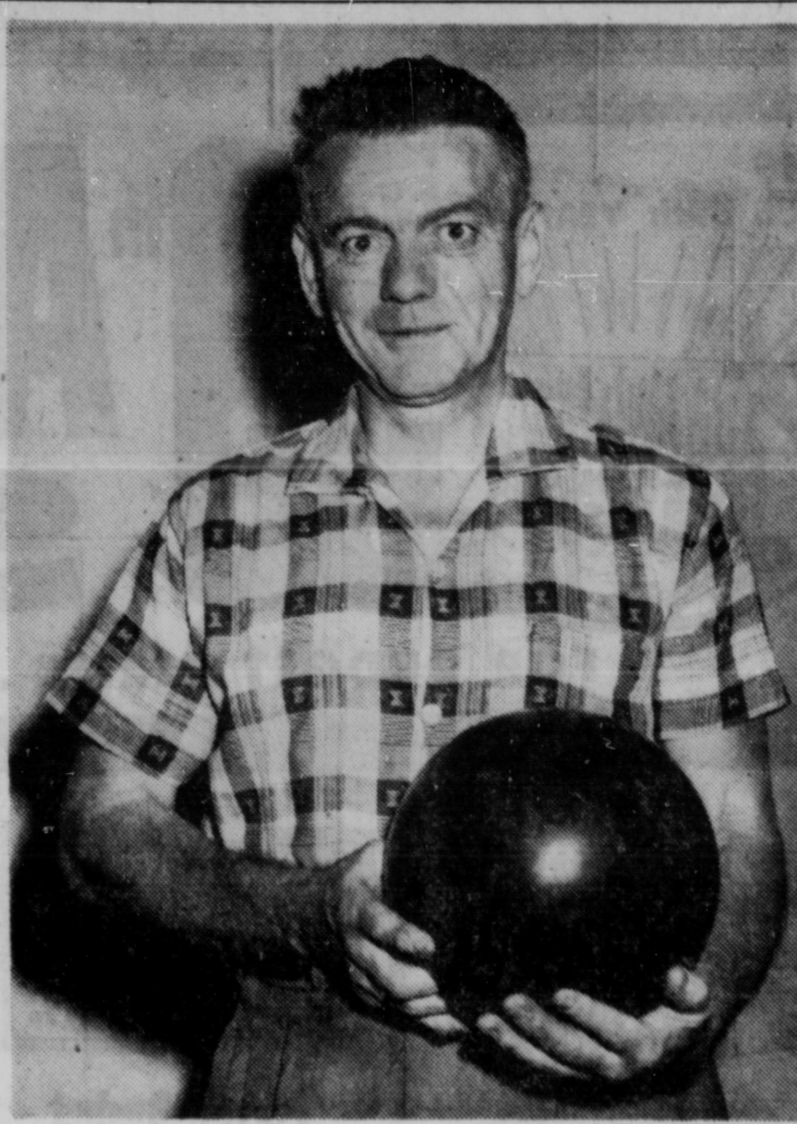

Following a long string of defeats a couple of years ago, the 28-year-old New Yorker announced his retirement. It lasted only a short time and now Miceli is trying to get back among the top fighters in the division.

Recently Miceli knocked out former welterweight champion Johnny Saxton and the loser promptly announced his retirement. So far, Saxton has not changed his mind.

The bout will be nationally broadcast and telecast (NBC, 10 p. m.). Logart has won 50, lost 7 and engaged in 5 draws since he turned pro. Miceli's record is 54-28-7.

Giant All The Way

OKLAHOMA CITY, — Oklahoma City University has a freshman basketball player with a name to fit his size. Schwegel Henry Oeljelenders is 6-foot-10. He's from LaGrange, Ark.

BOWLER OF SEASON—Leo Murray, a 160-plus performer in the Catholic AA, qualified for two American Bowling Congress Awards with a 298 solo and 717 series in a recent session of the league. He fired games of 226, 193 and 298 for the season's top triple. His 12th ball in a bid for a perfect 300 score ran too high and left the 6-10 setup. He will receive an award for 11 strikes in a row and a silver award for the 298 solo. (Freeman photo).

Charming Barbara in Front

Haughton Pilots 4 Winners Including Rich Trot Victor

Billy Haughton, the nation's leading harness racing driver, reined four winners, including Charming Barbara in the $30,000 Dream Trot, last night at Roosevelt Raceway in Westbury, Long Island.

The Long Island teamster scored a one- and one-quarter length victory over Time Me in the Dream Trot for 3-year-olds. Charming Barbara was timed in 2:04 1/5 and returned $4.20 for $2.

Haughton's other victories came in the featured $9,000 pace with Duane Hanover and the free-for-all trot, worth $7,200, behind Trader Horn. Duane Hanover defeated Chief Lenawee, driven by Hugh Bell, and paid $13.50. Trader Horn trimmed favored Galophone, with Bob Walker steering, and returned $5.70. Haughton's fourth victor was favored Ace Direct in the ninth race.

Starts From Pole
Haughton started from the pole position with Charming Barbara, the Rodney filly out of The Charming, by Volimite. The favorite yielded the lead at the quarter in thirty seconds to David Johnston's Gallon's Lady from Charlotte, N. C., driven by Dana Cameron.

When the Two Gait's Farm's Hoot Song from Indianapolis, handled by Ralph Baldwin, challenged en route to the half, Haughton moved Charming Barbara to the front in 1:01 3/5. She was immediately challenged by Gallon's Lady on the outside. The pair battled to the three-quarter in 1:33.

Gallon's Lady began to wilt around the last turn and the S. A. Camp Farm's Time Me, driven by Joe O'Brien of Shafter, Calif., put on a spurt. However, the Haughton trotter had plenty left and drew away.

Harrison Hoyt gained ground in the stretch with the Demon Hanover colt, Buckeye Demon, for third place.

Ice Players File $3,000,000 Suit

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Hockey League Players' Assn. has filed a three million dollar anti-trust suit in federal court yesterday against the NHL, Madison Square Garden, five other organizations and seven individuals.

The complaint charged that the defendants have obtained "complete domination and control and dictatorship" of professional hockey in New York, New England, Michigan, Illinois, and Quebec and Ontario, Canada.

Army-Notre Dame Heads List

Half-Million Fans Expected To Watch Six Top Grid Tilts

The Associated Press
Six college football games Saturday likely will attract about a half million spectators if the influenza germ doesn't cut too big a swath among those holding prized admission tickets.

The bug of one variety or other already has been felt by the players themselves. It put a damper on workouts by a number of major elevens this week and forced cancellation of several small college and high school games in widely separated parts of the country.

But coaches from major teams, with the possible exception of Nebraska, reported today they expect their squads to be close to top shape physically. Nebraska has had half of its 50-man squad affected by the germ. But the disease apparently has run its course at Notre Dame and Oklahoma, where a number of first stringers, including the Sooners' Clendon Thomas, spent several days in bed.

Army-ND Resume
Army and Notre Dame, resuming a series that was abandoned 10 years ago because the almost hysterical interest in their games put too much pressure on players and coaches, are expected to fill Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium almost to its 102,000 capacity. Michigan and Michigan State, playing a key game in the open race for the Big Ten championship, will appear before another 100,000 at Ann Arbor and 75,000 will jam the Dallas Cotton Bowl to see national leader Oklahoma go after its 43rd consecutive victory against Texas.

Ohio State likely will draw its usual 80,000 or so for a homecoming game at Columbus against Illinois — the 37th meeting in the Big Ten's oldest continuous rivalry. The Rice Stadium at Houston (Capacity 70,000) and the Stanford Stadium at Palo Alto, Calif. (90,000) should be well filled when these teams meet Duke and Washington State, respectively.

Low Pressure Affair
Comparatively speaking, Army-Notre Dame is a low pressure affair this year, although both teams are unbeaten so far. A decade of cooling off, plus a weak 1956 Notre Dame team and a few ordinary years of Army football, have reduced the pressure. But the winner undoubtedly will receive a lot of attention when next week's ratings are made.

Michigan State and Michigan, each 2-0 for the season, were ranked second and sixth in this week's Associated Press poll. The victor still will have to contend with Minnesota (No. 4) and Iowa (No. 8) in the Big Ten race. Minnesota plays Northwestern and Iowa plays Indiana Saturday. Illinois and Ohio State (each 1-1) will be opening their conference campaigns.

Oklahoma, a team which can "disappoint" Coach Bud Wilkinson by winning by only 40-14, is the big attraction as it goes against once-beaten Texas, coached by a former Wilkinson pupil, Darrell Royal.

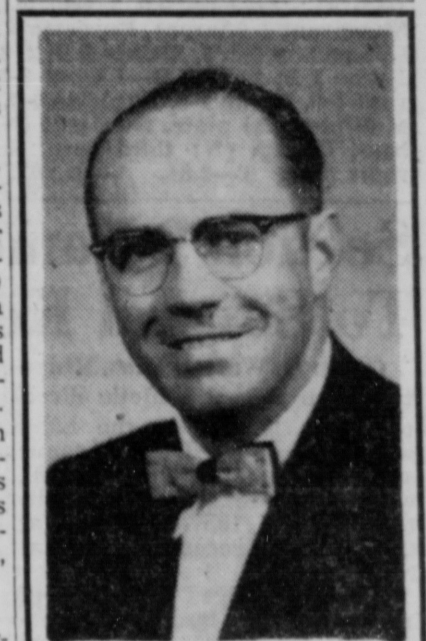

Perfect Records
Duke, the Atlantic Coast Conference leader, and Rice, winner over Stanford last week, also have perfect records. Stanford and Washington State, along with Oregon State, are leading contenders for the Pacific Coast Conference title.

Texas A&M, No. 3 in the AP rankings, meets Houston Saturday. Oregon State (7) plays Idaho and Auburn (9) plays Kentucky. Army is the current No. 10 team with Notre Dame 12th.

Other top attractions this weekend include:
Missouri-Southern Methodist, North Carolina-Miami, Georgia-Tulane and Air Force-George Washington on Friday.

SATURDAY — Nebraska-Pittsburgh, West Virginia-Boston University, Syracuse-Cornell, Penn-Princeton, Brown-Dartmouth, Wisconsin-Purdue, Iowa State-Kansas, Arizona-Colorado, Arkansas-Baylor, Brigham Young-Utah, Colorado State-Wyoming, Navy-California and Washington-UCLA.

Section 9 Names Coach Kias To Several Key Committees

Coach G. Warren Kias, Kingston High School athletic director, who is one of the elder statesmen of the DUSO League, and Section 9 Athletic Council, was named to several committees for the 1957-58 season at the Council's recent meeting at Newburgh.

Kias was placed in charge of intersectional basketball arrangements, a post he has filled for many years. He was also named chairman of skiing and track activities in this district; was appointed basketball representative to the state committees and is a member of a four-man committee set up to edit and revise sectional sport rules and regulations.

Coach Larry Johnson of New Paltz heads the Section 2 basketball committee and Coach John (Chick) Meehan of Rondout Central is a member of the winter sports committee, which handles table tennis, volleyball, bowling, swimming and badminton.

Hathaway Named

Joseph Roberge of New Paltz is also a member of the skiing-track committee. Harold Hathaway of Kingston High was selected for the tennis-golf committee.

It was announced that Clair Bee, athletic director at New York Military Academy, will be the speaker at the Council's annual dinner meeting, Dec. 4 at the Hotel Newburgh.

The annual Physical Education Conference will be held at the Hotel Newburgh.

The annual Physical Education Conference will be held at the Hendrick Hudson Hotel in New York starting January 17.

Coach Larry Johnson of New Paltz heads the Section 2 basketball committee and Coach John (Chick) Meehan of Rondout Central is a member of the

The smell son of a small town family was reprimanded by his teacher about his writing.

Teacher—You are a very poor scribe, Joe. I just don't know what to do about it.

Small Boy—You don't need to worry about me. It doesn't matter. I'm going to be a doctor, anyway.

A teacher in a country school-house was instructing her class in the use of antonyms.

Teacher—Now, children, what is the opposite of sorrow? Class (in unison)—Joy.

Teacher—What is the opposite of pleasure? Class—Pain.

Teacher—And what is the opposite of woe? One Boy—Giddap.

Back-fence gossip to neighbor—Listen carefully, because I can tell this once—I promised not to repeat it.—Bernhardt in Denver Post.

When I bought my hunting license this year, the number—81314—seemed vaguely familiar. Then it dawned on me that it was the month, day, and year of my birth.—Waldo L. Dyson, Pocomo Pines, Pa.

REELFOOT LAKE Reelfoot Lake, in the northwest corner of Tennessee, occupies a depression 65 square miles in area, formed by the New Madrid earthquake movement of 1811-12. During the upheaval, the ground sank and the Mississippi River, reversing its flow, rushed in to fill the giant hole.

A civil engineer stepped on to the broken-down porch of a dilapidated shack high in the hills. A mountaineer wife sat on the porch, resting comfortably.

The engineer tipped his hat.

Engineer—Howdy, madam. I just came here to tell you we're going to dynamite that wooden bridge down the road. So when you hear a loud explosion, don't worry about it.

The bill-billy woman nodded.

Woman—What time ye gonna dynamite the bridge?

Engineer—Tomorrow morning at eight.

The bill-billy woman puffed on her pipe.

Woman (drawing)—Cain't ye make it six o'clock? Then I won't have to set the alarm clock fer my husband!

McClellan Scores Beck's Role in Hoffa's Election

WASHINGTON — Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.) says that Dave Beck enabled James R. Hoffa to win election as president of the Teamsters by dictating disregard of the union's constitution.

Hoffa, 44-year-old Detroit labor leader, was elected by a 3-1 margin last week at the Teamsters convention in Miami Beach.

McClellan, chairman of the special Senate committee investigating racketeering in the labor-management field, said records of the convention's credentials committee "reveal some situations which are just plain scandalous." The committee subpoenaed the records immediately after Hoffa's election. It is inquiring into charges that delegates had been hand-picked to rig the election for Hoffa, as alleged in a court action which sought unsuccessfully to block the election.

Hoffa has been accused by McClellan and other Senate investigators of misuse of union funds and underworld connections. In Detroit, Hoffa disputed McClellan's contention that the union constitution had been disregarded. He said president Beck and the union's executive board were charged with interpretation of the constitution. Beck gave his interpretation, Hoffa said, and it was then approved by the executive board and later by the full convention.

"How far do we have to go?" he asked.

Albany Will Be Headquarters of National Guard

NEW YORK — The two headquarters of the New York National Guard—in New York City and Albany—will be consolidated next week into the one at Albany.

Some staff officers of the New York headquarters have already moved to Albany, and others are house-hunting there.

The shift, which became known yesterday, is in line with a recommendation by the state budget division in 1955. The division reported ed "wasteful" spending by the state division of military and naval affairs, which includes the National Guard and the naval militia.

The budget division called for economies of more than $600,000 a year, including $106,000 from reorganization of the National Guard headquarters.

It was reported that 54 employees in New York City will have an opportunity to move to Albany. Those who choose not to transfer will be helped to find jobs in other state agencies in New York.

Injured Fatally

PLATTSBURGH — Homer D. LaFountain was injured fatally yesterday when an automobile left a rural road, struck a tree and overturned near his home at Mooers Forks, about 20 miles northwest of here near the Canadian border.
